Nikita Sends Letter Accepting Joint Space Exploration

Kennedy Studies Plan —Has No Comment Yet

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sent a message today to President John F. Kennedy agreeing to cooperate in exploring space.

He said immediate cooperation was possible in the use of artificial satellites for long distance communications.

The message was read over Moscow Radio.

In Washington, the White House said Khrushchev's space cooperation proposal was received by the president last night but he will have no comment until he has had a chance to study the letter.

Kennedy had proposed to Khrushchev that the two powers cooperate in various space programs such as communications, the tracking of satellites, weather research and the measuring of the earth's magnetic field.

The Soviet premier said it was "desirable to have an international agreement" to bring closer cooperation in use of space ships and particularly in giving greater security to astronauts.

Khrushchev suggested the two nations get together in launching observation rockets to the moon and planets.

His letter and said all countries should have equal opportunities for space exploration. Therefore, the Soviet government suggested a series of joint research ventures including:

1. Use of artifical earth satellites for a long distance communications system.

2. Organization of a worldwide weather observation service using satellites.

3. Organization observations, both radio and optical, under a joint program of objects launched in the direction of the moon, Mars, Venus and other planets.

4. Pooling of efforts in the study of the physics of interplanetary space and celestial bodies.

Khrushchev said Soviet representatives in the U. N. space committee would be instructed to meet the U. S. representatives "to discuss practical problems of cooperation in exploration and peaceful uses of outer space."

Khrushchev went on to express satisfaction that his own proposals for space cooperation made in February "met the necessary understanding on the part of the United States government."

Actually, the Soviet Union had already told the U. N. Committee on Peaceful Uses of Outer Space it would help set up an international communication system using artifical satellites.

House Unit Passes Pt. Reyes Bill, Recommends Enactment

Amendment Protects Ranchers In Area

The House Interior Committee today unanimously voted the Point Reyes National Seashore bill to the House with recommendation that it be enacted.

Ranchers in opposition were given protection by an amendment giving them the right, in case they can no longer use their land for ranching, to make other use subject to a government condemnation right.

If the bill is approved by the House, it will go to conference committee for threshing out mostly minor differences from an already enacted Senate measure. Chief present divergence is concerning small Duck Cove, included in the seashore by the House committee but excluded by the Senate version.

"Presidential signature by mid-May seems possible," said Rep. Clem Miller (D-Corte Madera).

Marin County Supervisor Peter Behr was in the committee chamber when final approval was given the bill in 53,000-acre form.

RANCHERS VIEW

San Rafael attorney Bryan McCarthy, who flew to Washington last week but couldn't go today, said ranchers whom he represents "still feel the seashore should be no bigger than 20,000 to 25,000 acres, leaving the dairy ranches out entirely."

"But if it has to be 53,000 acres," McCarthy added, "the amendment by Rep. Ralph Rivers (D-Alaska) has made the bill generally satisfactory by giving fairer treatment."

RANCHER COMPLAINTS

The ranchers had complained that earlier versions restricted use of their land without giving guarantee that the government would buy it.

McCarthy said under the amendment, if a rancher lost his dairy contract and was thus forced out of business he would be able to subdivide or make any other use of his land provided the government would not put up purchase money. But the government retains the right to condemn in such case.

"The battle is by no means over and there will be opposition on the floor of the House," said Congressman Miller, "but I am confident that the final outcome will be favorable."

House and Senate versions agree that initial public use will be confined to 23,000

Marin Throws Up Block For Transit Vote

Board Refuses To Pull Out Of Bay District

By RANDALL GOULD

Marin County supervisors yesterday threw a roadblock in the way of a Bay Area Rapid Transit District bond election next November.

It was done most politely. But facts brought out in discussion clarified both the power and the firm intent.

M. J. Lamperti, a Marin director of the rapid transit district, appeared for the second successive week to plead for Marin's withdrawal from the district.

To his obvious chagrin, all he did was convince the board of two things:

1. That it had been over-cautious in seeking special state legislation for an extension of time. Marin faces no deadline for decision.

2. That instead of rushing toward an unnecessary, perhaps foredoomed bond election next November, the transit district should wait for final word about the Golden Gate Bridge and at the same time try to lure San Mateo and Santa Clara counties back into the district.

Result of these realizations was unanimous passage of a mildly worded but dynamite-loaded resolution proposed by Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

Fusselman moved that the board write the rapid transit district "requesting it to consider favorably an extension of time in holding the election."

The letter is to point out that other bond proposals in any event jeopardize a rapid transit issue, and that all things considered the district should "abandon the idea of doing anything next November."

Lamperti, for the second time seeking to discharge what last week he termed his "unpleasant duty" of talking his county out of the transit district, succeeded mainly in letting the supervisors realize their power.

On advice of County Counsel E. Warren McGuire that they could do so, they had disregarded withdrawal of the rapid transit plan which excluded Marin County, and after its withdrawal they had "played safe" by voting against it. This put them into a period of six months, they thought, within which they had to decide whether to stay in or withdraw.

Probe For Oil Off Marin Coast Is Asked—Threat To Seashore?

Standard Oil Co. of California has asked state permission to conduct submarine oil explorations off Marin County shores between April 2 and Oct. 1, county supervisors learned yesterday.

Assuming that this might represent some threat to the potential Point Reyes National Seashore, the board immediately referred the matter to the Point Reyes National Seashore Foundation.

A. W. Pfeil, supervisory mineral resources engineer for the State Lands Division, wrote the supervisors that Standard Oil will put in an appearance on behalf of its exploration application at 10 a.m. March 29 at the California State Building in Los Angeles. He wanted to know whether the supervisors wished to make any presentation.

No decision was made on that point.

Second 'Black Muslim' Arrested In Christmas Eve Sausalito Thefts

A second "Black Muslim" was arrested yesterday in San Francisco as a suspect in the $20,000 Christmas Eve burglary of the Sausalito home of Mrs. Sally Clapp Stapp.

She is Oranell Moore, 24, a housewife and the common-law wife of Raymond Ricardo Varela, arrested Monday, and now in Marin County Jail.

Varela, also a "Black Muslim," who gave his address as Oakland, was to appear this afternoon in municipal court to plead to a charge of receiving stolen goods. He is under $1,050 bail.

Miss Moore, who said her name in the Muslim sect is Exna Kenola, was arrested shortly after noon yesterday at her home in the Ingleside district.

Sausalito Police Sgt. David Cooper spotted "piles and piles of loot" through a window in the basement of the home while Donald E. Midyett, Marin District Attorney's investigator, and Earl Guisness, Santa Rosa insurance investigator, were attempting to gain entry upstairs.

Told to "go away" by Miss Moore, the officers were permitted entry after they threatened to kick in the door.

She called the officers "white devils."

"The day of reckoning is coming," she told them." We're going to rise up and kill all you white devils." (The U.S. "Black Muslim" sect, not Moslem religion, is dedicated to black supremecy.)

Later, in the basement, the officers found loot from the Stapp burglary as well as from

Gate Span Lanes Will Be Blocked

Golden Gate Bridge north-end traffic will be restricted to two lanes both north and southbound for a few hours excluding the commute periods tomorrow and Friday, it was announced today by the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District headquarters office.

The restriction will be only after 9:30 a.m. and before 3 p.m. in order to avoid interference with periods of heaviest travel.

Reason for the temporary closure of one northbound and one southbound lane, it was explained, is work of Marin viaduct widening just north of the bridge.

Spring In Air —Rain On Way

Mother Nature was just celebrating the first day of spring with Marin County's morning-hour sunshine today, said the weather man. More rain was considered 80 per cent likely tonight.

From Point Reyes north gale warnings were out for winds up to 45 knots, but inland the county wasn't expected to have such disturbance.

U.S., Russia Firm On Berlin, Test Ban

GENEVA (UPI)—The United States and Russia stood firm today on Berlin and the nuclear test ban positions with neither apparently willing to give an inch.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk informed America's Allies he has been unable to detect any relaxation in the tough Soviet demands on Berlin.

A meeting of the chief nuclear test ban negotiators of the U.S., Britain and Russia—instructed by the 17-nation general disarmament conference to report by week's end whether there is any hope of agreement now — ended with each side reporting no change of position by the other.

A meeting of the general disarmament conference instructed permanent co-chairmen Russia and the United States to appeal to France to take the seat being held open for it here.

The Soviet Union increased the pressure on the Berlin issue by bringing East German Foreign Minister Lothar Bolz into town. Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko was understood to have intervened personally in the Swiss capital to get Bolz the necessary visa.

JFK Promises To Step Up Spending On RS-70

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy today averted a showdown House floor battle over the RS-70 airplane with an 11th hour promise to step up spending on development of the craft if a new study justifies such action.

Shortly after the chief executive made the pledge, the influential House Armed Services Committee laid aside a recommendation that Congress "direct" the administration to move ahead faster on the big jet plane.

Committee Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.) claimed the House group had won its battle to speed up work on the reconnaissance-strike bomber. Some other committee members were less certain of the final outcome.

A letter to the committee from the president promised an immediate restudy of the RS-70 program. Kennedy said he would spend extra funds on the 2,000-mile-an-hour aircraft if the study shows it would be profitable.

Kennedy's letter and one from Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara spelling out the compromise were submitted to the House committee at an unannounced closed-door session.

Nixon Error 'Honest Misunderstanding,' Dulles Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Allen W. Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, says Richard M. Nixon was in error when he charged that President John F. Kennedy had been briefed during the 1960 campaign on Cuban invasion preparations.

Dulles said, however, he believed the charge—contained in Nixon's new book, "Six Crises"—was the result of "an honest misunderstanding."

Nixon contended Kennedy had been told the CIA was helping to train Cuban rebels for an invasion and had jeopardized the plan in campaign oratory.

The White House denied this yesterday, saying Kennedy knew nothing of the invasion preparations until after he was elected and that Nixon's "account is apparently based on a misunderstanding."

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said Dulles had twice briefed Kennedy during the presidential race but that the briefings consisted mainly of a broad review of the world situation.

In a memorandum Dulles said, "There has been here, I believe, an honest misunderstanding. This was probably due to the nature of the message Mr. Nixon writes he received as to these briefings. The Cuban situation was, of course, dealt with in the briefings I gave Sen. Kennedy.

"My briefings were intelligence briefings on the world situation. They did not cover our own government's plans or programs for action, overt or covert."

In Los Angeles, Nixon's office said it had no comment on the Dulles or White House statements.

In his book, the former vice president said Kennedy had forced him into a dilemma on Cuba during the campaign. This was, he said, the only time during the race he got angry at his rival.

Kennedy, said Nixon, called for action to "strengthen the non-Batista democratic anti-Castro forces in exile and in Cuba itself who offer eventual hope of overthrowing Castro."

He did this, Nixon contended, after having been briefed about the training of Cuban exiles.

Nixon said that Kennedy's call for stronger action put him on the spot and forced him to take a public stand at variance with his actual views because "the operation had to be protected at all costs. I must not suggest even by implication that the United States was rendering aid to rebel forces in and out of Cuba. In fact, I must go to the other extreme; I must attack the Kennedy proposal to provide such aid as wrong and irresponsible because it would violate our treaty commitments."

He did just that, according to a transcript of the fourth Kennedy-Nixon television debate. He called Kennedy's Cuban proposals "probably the most dangerously irresponsible recommendations" of the campaign.

He said if the United States supported a Cuban invasion "we would lose all of our friends in Latin America, we would probably be condemned in the United Nations and we would not accomplish our objective."

He added: "It would be an open invitation to Mr. Khrushchev to come in, to come into Latin America and to engage us in what would be a civil war, and possibly even worse than that."

Salinger, in denying that Kennedy knew of plans for the invasion at the time of the campaign, read the following statement:

"The President does not believe the intelligence briefings are a proper subject of public debate, but in the light of the account in Mr. Nixon's book it is necessary to say that the then Sen. Kennedy was not told before the election of 1960 of the training of troops outside of Cuba or of any plans for 'supporting an invasion of Cuba.'"

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Coya Knutson Wins Divorce

OKLEE, Minn., March 21 (UPI)—Minnesota's first congresswoman, Coya Knutson, whose husband's famous "Coya, come home" appeal in the 1958 election shattered her political career, will not be coming home today.

The couple was granted a divorce yesterday.

A district judge awarded Mrs. Knutson, 48, the divorce after she testified her husband, Andy, began drinking shortly after their marriage in 1941 and had gone on some "real sprees."

The former representative charged her husband with inhuman treatment and said she paid the bills while Andy "puttered around" their white frame hotel here.

Demobilization Date

WASHINGTON (AP)—Defense Department officials are reported considering Aug. 25 for starting demobilization of more than 155,000 National Guardsmen and reservists now on cold war active duty.

According to this thinking—and it still is tentative—most of the reservists would be mustered out within the following month, informed sources said.

TV In Chicago

CHICAGO (UPI)—A university professor said yesterday the Federal Communications Commission should be replaced if it fails to use its licensing power to force changes in local television program policies.

Dale Pontius, Roosevelt University political scientist, was among 99 witnesses testifying this week in the FCC's first inquiry into local television programming in a major city. The hearing will continue through Saturday and then adjourn until April 9, when station officials were expected to testify.

'Russ Spy In Sky'

LONDON (UPI)—The London Daily Mirror's science editor said today that the Russians may be "spying" on America with its new sputnik launched last weekend, and the Pentagon is giving it "careful thought."

The space vehicle, said Ronald Bedford, could have television cameras aboard similar to the ones with which the Russians photographed the far side of the moon.

Eichmann Hearing

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — Adolf Eichmann, sentenced to hang for the mass murder of millions of Jews during World War II, was transferred early today from his prison cell near Tel Aviv to a special cell in the Beit Haam court building here.

The former Nazi S.S. officer's appeal of his death sentence will be heard by an Israeli court tomorrow.

Maritime Strike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The British cruise ship Oriana was caught today in the backwash of the West Coast maritime strike and 400 debarking passengers had to carry their own baggage ashore.

The 41,923-ton liner is not involved in the five day old strike against Pacific Maritime Assn. But she docked at 8 a.m. at Pier 32, where the entrance was blocked by a picket line against a struck Matson freighter.

One woman was thrown to the pavement when she tried to cross the picket line. It was the first violence in the strike by three sea-going unions.

After an hour's conference with police, pickets allowed visitors aboard. But longshoremen still refused to go on the dock.

Striking unions had previously assured longshoremen they would picket only struck ships, but said they were forced to picket the entrance of pier 32 entrance because they were not allowed on the dock.

The P & O Orient Lines luxury ship arrived with 1,551 passengers, 404 for San Francisco, for a 32 hour stopover on a world cruise. She arrived from the Far East via Vancouver, B.C., and sails at 4 p.m. tomorrow Thursday for Europe via Los Angeles.

Syria, Israel Clash

JERUSALEM (AP)—Syrian and Israeli warplanes clashed today and a Syrian spokesman said one Israeli fighter fled from a dog fight in flames.

Each nation accused the other of violating its air space in this followup to hostilities launched in an eight-hour battle in the Sea of Galilee area Saturday.

An Israeli military spokesman said Syrian planes penetrated Israeli's air space for the second day in a row, but were driven off by Israeli fighters.

A Syrian spokesman charged that four Israeli planes flew into Syrian territory, where they were intercepted by fighters of that Arab nation.

Phone Call Burns Home

UKIAH (AP) — A neighbor's ranch house burned down Monday because she could not break into a party line to report the fire, a woman told authorities.

Mrs. Raul Flores said she grabbed her telephone when she saw flames coming from the house on the Walter Moore farm, adjacent to hers.

Mrs. Flores said she pleaded for five minutes with the people who were using the line before they gave it up. By the time she reached the Fire Department, it was too late.

RESIGNS — Yun Po-Sun, 64-year-old president of South Korea, has submitted his resignation to the military junta chairman, Gen. Chung Hee Park. The resignation was a protest against the junta's recent decree banning politicans from running for office during the next six years unless they are cleared by a military government.

Tornadoes Strike

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (UPI)—One and perhaps two tornadoes spun out of a turbulent line of thunderstorms last night, injuring one person and causing more than $100,000 damage to two northwestern Arkansas communities.

The injured person was Mrs. Raymond Villines, 23, of Ponca, 50 miles east of Fayetteville. She was hurled 150 feet through the air by what state police said was a tornado. Mrs. Villines suffered cuts, bruises and a possible broken leg.

Car Designer Dies

PLACERVILLE (UPI) — John Tjaarda, designed of the Lincoln Zephyr, which had been his "dream car" of the 1933 Chicago World's Fair, died yesterday in the Sierra Nevada mountain community of Diamond Springs.

Tjaarda, 65, was a victim of cancer.

A native of Holland, Tjaarda headed the styling department of the Briggs Manufacturing Co. in the 1930s. While working there, he designed the fair's dream car, which later became the Zephyr.

Inmates Arraigned For Prison Escape

Two San Quentin Prison inmates have been arraigned in Marin Superior Court on charges of escaping i na garbage packer truck.

Judge Thomas F. Keating set April 2 for pleas of the pair, Melvin Lorne Brigham, 29, and Gray Athol Cornell, 41. A third convict who escaped with them, Leonard Leon Patton, 27, did not appear. He has not yet been returned from South Dakota where he was captured.

Terrorism Perils Algeria Cease-Fire

ALGIERS (AP) — European terrorism and the rising anger of the Moslem masses threatened the precarious case-fire in Algeria today.

At least 70 Moslems have died and nearly 150 have been wounded by the gunfire of European extremists and French troops since the official truce went into effect at noon Monday.

Grim French officials admitted that more blood had been shed in Algeria since the cease-fire than in any other 36-hour period in the past five months of intense terrorism. The toll yesterday alone was 30 killed and 124 wounded.

While terrorism, blamed largely on the European Secret Army Organization (OAS) took its toll in the big coastal cities, nervous French troops in at least half a dozen villages in the interior fired on Moslem crowds displaying the green and white rebel flag.

The army charged that the Moslems tried to attack European settlements, and fired on the troops first.

Some French officials contended that Moslems in the interior were not disciplined enough to obey the cease-fire orders from the rebel National Liberation Front (FLN).

Others believed that a number of rebel guerrilla bands in the interior were not accepting the cease-fire and were inciting Moslem civilians to riot.

Still others blamed the incidents in the interior on the Moslem rival to the FLN, the National Algerian Movement (MNA) which was shut out in the cease-fire negotiations between France and the FLN leaders.

The OAS was blamed for a mortar attack on a crowd of Moslems massed at the foot of the Algiers Casbah. At least four Moslems were killed and 67 wounded.

In Oran, Moslems and Europeans fought a blazing gun battle along the boulevard separating the Moslem "new city" from the European quarter. Eight persons died and 25 were wounded during this and other incidents in Oran.

The Roman Catholic archbishop of Algiers, Msgr. Etienne Duval, warned that continuing terrorism may lead Algeria "toward the worst of catastrophes." He called on the Europeans to persuade the right-wing underground that "they are on the path forbidden by God."

Shortly after the archbishop's words were broadcast, angry Europeans took to the windows and balconies of Algiers once more to scream their rallying cry of "Algeria is French." A dozen plastic bombs damaged Moslem stores and apartment buildings.

The aim of the secret army appeared to be to provoke the Moslem masses in the cities into attacks on French troops.

Argentina's Frondizi Hangs On By Making Deal With Military

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—President Arturo Frondizi clung to his job today by making a deal with Argentina's armed forces chiefs to form a coalition Cabinet—half civilian, half military — and outlaw all political activity by resurgent Peronists.

The crisis eased, for the moment at least, as the government announced that the eight civilian Cabinet members had resigned to make way for the new coalition.

Frondizi made peace with the military in a 40-minute conference during the night with Gen. Raul Alejandro Poggi, the army commander in chief; Adm. Agustin R. Penas, chief of naval operations, and Brig. Gen. Cayo Antonio Alsina, the air force commander.

Afterward the government announced in a brief communique that the president would form a "Cabinet of national unity" after consulting today with "the representatives of the Democratic parties and representative institutions."

Frondizi also declared he would not retreat from his unpopular austerity program, which was widely blamed for his election setback.

His agreement with the military brought Frondizi through the worst challenge to his hold on the government reins since he took office in May 1958. He still faced the reaction of millions of voters who chalked up smashing victories for Peronists in Sunday's congressional and provincial elections. So far, however, the capital was surprisingly quiet.

The military chiefs had appeared ready to force Frondizi out and seize control to nullify the landslide election wins of Peronist forces in 10 provinces.

The United States reportedly sent word it would cut down or even eliminate Argentina's share in its Alliance for Progress aid program if the military took over.

Britain was also said to have warned that without a constitutional president, Argentina would become unattractive for British investments.

Hoffa Says Teamsters Are Doing Fine, A Billion-Dollar Operation

WASHINGTON (AP) — James R. Hoffa said today the Teamsters Union he heads has become a billion-dollar operation and is doing fine despite a barrage of indictments against him and his fellow officials.

Hoffa, back from his latest bout with the courts, was interviewed on the maze of federal court actions brought against key Teamsters leaders in cities from coast to coast alleging fraud and violence.

"There is no question the government is spending millions of dollars of the taxpayers' money to satisfy Bobby's (Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's) vendetta," Hoffa said. "It's costing us money for defense against these charges that we could use for collective bargaining and other union purposes.

"And what has the government come up with? Nothing."

Government prosecutors obviously think otherwise. A steady return of Teamsters indictments began when Kennedy, former chief counsel of the Senate racket committee which investigated the Teamsters affairs for three years, became attorney general. Hoffa said he knows more than two dozen grand juries are delving into Teamsters matters.

Hoffa minimized one indictment after another, and expressed confidence he will be freed from the 16-count mail fraud indictment pending against him at Orlando, Fla. This alleges that Hoffa and a Detroit bank official misused $500,000 of Detroit Teamsters funds in a Florida land development deal.

"Nobody got defrauded out of a quarter," Hoffa said. "So where in the hell is the problem?

"Stories about the Orlando case make it look like Hoffa put $500,000 in his kick. Which ain't bad if you can do it—but I didn't."

Rival Ferry Boats Expected To Sail Commuters Monday

Rival ferry boats are expected to be passing each other in midstream Monday on their commute trips between Tiburon and San Francisco.

Monday is the first day scheduled for a new charter group called Belvedere-Tiburon Ferryboat Club. The Marin Marine Commute Club started its regular runs yesterday.

The latter club has chartered the boat, Blue Horizon, from Capt. Russell Lewis of Sausalito, who reported smooth sailing today.

Lewis said he had 44 passengers yesterday, 50 today and expects to have 80 who have already signed up by Monday. Lewis plans to put on extra rides and more boats as traffic demands.

The Blue Horizon leaves the Dock restaurant in Tiburon at 7:05 and 8:10 a.m. for Pier 45 at Fisherman's Wharf. Return trips leave San Francisco at 5:15 and 6:15 p.m. The charge is $4 a week.

Lewis said his company plans to also start a commuter ferry service between Sausalito and San Francisco.

Another service, to begin May 1, will be a tourist's boat from pier 45 in San Francisco to Sausalito.

The rival company is the Harbor Tug and Drayage Co., operating ferry runs under the name of Showboat Transportation Co. The Belvedere-Tiburon Ferryboat Club, using its boats, has scheduled trips starting Monday to leave the Dock in Tiburon at 7:45 a.m., arriving at the Ferry Building in San Francisco by 8:15. Return trip will leave the Ferry Building at 5:30 p.m. Charge is $30 per month.

Harbor Tug and Drayage Co. also has an application with the California Public Utilities Commission to operate ferry service between Tiburon and the Ferry Building as a common carrier on regular schedule.

Annexation May Solve Pollution At Gallinas

Further step toward clearing the much-criticized Las Gallinas sanitary situation was taken last night when directors of Gallinas Village Community Services District met with the board of the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District and conceded that they'd better annex.

This course was directed in a recent mandate from the Bay Area Water Pollution Control District board, though it ran counter to community district ideas of last fall when a $188,000 cost figure came up.

The sanitary district won't consent to annex without having plant, pumping station and lines of the community district brought up to its standards. Faced with discouraging results of a survey last summer, the community district board last fall decided to try to work out its own salvation.

It was made clear at last night's meeting that the community district board now sees annexation as inevitable.

Lines of the community district will be cleared in May, it was explained, and at that time it can be determined where the apparently numerous breaks are located and what they will cost to repair.

Community district directors were advised to arrange for an early public meeting at which facts can be presented. Signatures of 75 per cent of property owners in the district must be obtained before annexation can be considered.

Employees Of Fairfax Schools Get Raises

Teachers, office secretaries and custodians in the Fairfax School District were given salary raises last night.

The trustees approved a starting teacher salary of $5,000 and a top limit of $8,600. Present salary range is from $4,800 to $8,400.

Office secretaries were given a $35 a month raise, bringing them to a starting salary of $305 with a top of $390 after five years. Custodians were given a $15 a month increase, giving them a range from $355 to $445 at the end of five years.

Supt. Homer Sisk said surveys had indicated the district was low on secretary salaries and said the large raise "would bring the district in line with the rest of Marin."

Salary raises for other personnel including principals and administrators would probably be announced at an adjourned meeting of the board next Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. at Central School, according to Sisk.

The 1962-63 school calendar of 181 days to run from Sept. 4 to June 14 was adopted.

Tiburon Incorporation Petitions Are Certified

Tiburon incorporation petitions were certified to county supervisors as adequate by County Clerk George Gnoss yesterday.

Supervisor Peter Behr then obtained approval of a resolution calling on proponents of incorporation to deposit $600 with the clerk by March 30.

County Counsel E. Warren McGuire said that, assuming the deposit will be made within the specified time, he will bring to the supervisors at their April 3 meeting a resolution setting time and place for public hearing and notice of election.

The committee adopted an amendment forbidding condemnation of ranch property so long as parcels remain 500 acres or larger. The Vedanta Society's 2,000-acre religious retreat and 2,000 acres of Radio Corp. of America and American Telephone and Telegraph Co. property are excluded from federal acquisition.

Rights of 17 residential property owners are preserved for continued use occupancy as they started building prior to Sept. 1, 1959.

Miller said it will take a little less than a week for the committee's counsel to write a report, spelling intent and giving explanation of the committee view. Committee Chairman Wayne Aspinall (D-Colo.) will tackle the rules committee in an effort to get the measure on the House floor by mid-April or at least prior to Easter recess, tentatively set to start April 19.

TRANSIT

state legislation lengthening their time limit.

All this was false reasoning, Lamperti said in effect.

"Don't take a dog-in-the-manger attitude," he urged.

The district by its withdrawing the plan had prevented Marin from getting caught in any time limit situation, Lamperti declared.

Won't Marin please withdraw so the three remaining counties could have their bond election in November? he pleaded. He said it would be shameful not to let the issue go on the ballot.

Supervisors rose to this with a rush. Peter Behr in particular hammered at the thought that the three remaining counties could have "added frills" which would soak up their available 15-per-cent-of-assessed-value bonding power and thus preclude rapid transit for Marin.

"For 15 years we were given a rosy picture and told we must be in," complained Supervisor Fusselman. "Now suddenly we are undesirable."

"We're elected to represent Marin County, and if that's the detriment of San Francisco it doesn't alarm me a bit," said Behr.

Nobody was inclined to credit assurances that Marin could withdraw and rejoin later.

other burglaries in San Francisco. Sausalito Police Chief Howard Goerndt said the goods found were valued in thousands of dollars.

Mrs. Stapp, who lives at 49 Cloud View Road, has identified many of the items, Goerndt reported. She was to go with police to San Francisco today to try to identify more. She could not estimate what portion has been recovered, she said.

"I'm so thrilled and excited to get any of it back," said Mrs. Stapp. "They found all of my cherished little memory things but none of my plate silver."

Many monogrammed silver pieces had been "crudely sanded," she reported. The inscription had been sandpapered from a silver cigarette box the Sausalito Woman's Club gave her, except for the words "from your board."

Miss Moore was taken to the San Francisco police station. San Francisco police said she is on probation on a charge of petty theft and forgery of Treasury checks. She has also been arrested as a prostitute and for selling narcotics to a minor. She was to be brought to Marin County jail today by Sausalito officers.

Varela was being questioned today by Cooper and Midyett. He has a prior record, having served a San Quentin Prison term for auto theft. He had appeared on a narcotics charge when arrested Monday in San Francisco. He is a salesman and musician.

OBITUARIES

Earl B. Reineger Dies At 71

Earl B. Reineger, retired dealer representative of Pacific Gas and Electric Co. in San Rafael, died yesterday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

Reineger, 71, had been associated with Pacific Gas and Electric Co. for 32 years before his retirement six years ago. A native of San Francisco, he made his home for 40 years at 23 Azalea Avenue, Fairfax.

He was past master of Fairfax Lodge 556, Free and Accepted Masons; member of Fairfax Lions Club, Marin Rod and Gun Club, San Anselmo Post 179, American Legion, and Reserve Officers Assn., Marin Chapter. He was a veteran of World War II.

He is survived by his wife, Ethyl; two daughters, Barbara Reineger of Fairfax and Mrs. Dorothy Judkins of San Anselmo; a sister, Mrs. Lillian Paiva of San Francisco, and one granddaughter.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, under auspices of Fairfax Lodge 556, F. & A.M. Entombment will be at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Jones Honored

Marin County supervisors yesterday ordered that adjournment of their weekly all-day session be designated as honoring the memory of County Clerk George S. Jones, who had served them for many years including the day preceding his death on March 14.

JFK Kin To Speak

SANTA CLARA (UPI) — Mrs. Eunice K. Shriver, sister of the president and wife of Peace Corps Director R. Sargent Shriver, will speak at the June 2 commencement of Santa Clara University, it was announced today.

FRANK LEONARD

Funeral services for M/Sgt. Frank Valentine Leonard, 45, of 1208 Denlyn Street, Novato, will be held at noon tomorrow at post chapel No. 1 at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Leonard was born in Urbana, Ill., June 29, 1916. He moved to Novato with his family seven years ago. Prior to that they had lived in Japan and Portland, Ore.

He was an aircraft maintenance technician at headquarters of the 78th Fighter Wing at Hamilton. He was a veteran of World War II and a member of Floyd Andrews Hamilton Post of the American Legion.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Patricia Leonard, director of nurses at San Rafael General Hospital; a son, Robert William, and a daughter, Janice Marie, at the Novato home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Valentine A. Leonard of Los Angeles; a sister and brother, Mrs. Beverly Cowan, and Robert E. Leonard of Hollywood.

Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno, directed by San Francisco Funeral Service.

JOHN MOYLES

John A. Moyles, 68, of Vallejo died Monday in a local hospital after a short illness.

He was the brother of Mrs. Catherine Alen, 4801 Paradise Drive, Tiburon. He was a native of San Francisco.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothea; three sisters, Mrs. Alen, Mrs. Loretta Parenti and Mrs. Virginia Morena, and two brothers, Andrew and James Moyles.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Carew and English funeral directors, San Francisco.

JOSEPH KREUZER

Marinwood engineer Joseph Vincent Kreuzer died en route to a local hospital today after lapsing into a coma at his home at 89 Blackstone Drive.

Kreuzer, 58, had been under a doctor's care after recent surgery for a stomach ailment. He was found in a coma by his wife, Marguerite, shortly after 4 a.m. today He was pronounced dead at 4:28 a.m. on arrival at Marin General Hospital, where he was taken by United Ambulance. An autopsy will be performed.

A native of Austria, Kreuzer had lived in the United States for 39 years, making his home for the past six years at the Marinwood address. He was employed as a mechanical engineer by Clyde Equipment Co. of Berkeley.

He is survived by his wife; a teen-age son, Russell, and a brother, John Kreuzer of Austria.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at Chapel of the Hills Mortuary, San Anselmo. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

RICHARD REED

Richard G. Reed, Corte Madera resident and retired Novato service station operator, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness. He was 62.

A native of Iowa, he resided in Marin County for 17 years, making his home most recently at 185 Birch Avenue. He operated the Mobil Service Station in Novato before ill health forced his retirement three years ago.

He is survived by his wife, Doris; a daughter, Mrs. Kathryn R. Altman of Los Angeles, and two grandsons.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Entombment will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

GWEN CURATILO
In oratorio premiere

Marinite Singing Lead In Concert

Soprano Gwen Curatilo of Terra Linda will sing the leading role Sunday with the San Francisco Symphony under Enrique Jorda in the American premiere of an oratorio by Gian Francesco Malipiero.

The role is that of the Virgin Mary in "La Passione." The oratorio will be presented at 4 p.m. at St. Ignatius Church in San Francisco by Patrons of Art and Music of the California Palace of the Legion of Honor in cooperation with University of San Francisco.

Marin will be further represented on the program when the symphony and the University of California Chorus perform the world premiere of another oratorio. This is "The Passion According to St. John" by Philip Ienni, who teaches at Dominican College in San Rafael. He is in charge of the Schola Cantorum and directs the orchestra there.

This program is the first of a series of concerts planned by the Patrons of Art and Music to bring music to people in in places of worship.

ARRIVAL IN PAKISTAN—Mrs. John F. Kennedy rode in the rear of an open car with Pakistan President Ayub Khan for the drive from the airport at Lahore to the government house today. She was greeted by a crowd of about 9,000 at the airport. (AP Wirephoto)

INDIAN STAY ENDS

Pakistan Greets Mrs. JFK Wildly

The first lady landed at Lahore Airfield in the early afternoon to begin a 4½-day tour of this Asian ally of the United States. She was greeted by President Mohammed Ayub Khan and hordes of young Pakistanis waving flags and carrying balloons.

Thousands on thousands of tiny paper flags were strung across Mrs. Kennedy's three-mile route from the airport to the government house where she was to stay. Welcome banners criss-crossed the route, and schoolchildren lined the way.

An airport crowd of about 9,000 persons broke into applause as Mrs. Kennedy, dressed in a sky blue suit and hat, stepped from the silver plane to greet President Ayub Khan and receive bouquets of roses from three children.

Ayub Khan's personal plane brought Mrs. Kennedy from New Delhi after she ended a nine-day tour of India with the cheers of the Indian public and the praise of officials ringing in her ears.

Prime Minister Nehru, Mrs. Kennedy's host, told a news conference the first lady's nine-day visit to India had added greatly to the "psychological pull between the U.S. and India."

"She has been liked wherever she's gone, chiefly due to the charm of her personality," Nehru said.

India's ambassador to the United States, B. K. Nehru, said Mrs. Kennedy had "charmed everyone wherever she went." He said he had never expected the enormous crowds that turned out to cheer her, especially in out of the way areas.

Indian officials said privately they hoped Mrs. Kennedy's visit had set the stage for a full state visit by President John F. Kennedy.

Hiroshima Victims Bring Message Of Peace

Two survivors of the Hiroshima atomic bomb ended a two-day plea for peace in Marin County by talking to several hundred Tamalpais High School students this morning.

Hiramasa Hanabusa, 18, who was orphaned by the bomb while an infant, and Miyoko Matsubara, 29, one of the 50 survivors in a class of 350 school girls, are on their way to the Geneva Peace Conference on April 15 with signatures of 460,000 Hiroshima residents asking an end to nuclear weapons.

Yesterday afternoon the two delivered their plea for peace to San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis.

In a book in which they are collecting messages from city officials throughout the United States to Mayor Hamai of Hiroshima, McInnis wrote: "We of San Rafael are most pleased and proud to receive your greetings and join you in your wish for the best relationship among people of the world."

They were accompanied on their visit to Marin by Phillip Drath, chairman of the Marin Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy; and Mrs. Earl Reynolds, wife of an Antioch professor, with her husband, sailed their yacht into the nuclear testing zone in the Pacific in 1958.

Last night the two were honored at a reception at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sam Hanzel of Kentfield at which $210 was raised through donations to the peace pilgrimage.

Miss Matsubara is scarred on her face and arms and fears to marry and have children because of the blast. She teaches in a school for the blind. Young Miss Hanabusa will graduate from high school this year and has been sent through school by a Rotary Club in New Jersey.

They visited classes at Tamalpais early today then appeared at the University of California and at schools and churches throughout the Bay Area.

MEETING THE MAYOR—San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis inscribes message to mayor of Hiroshima, Japan, for Hiromasa Hanabusa (left) and Miroko Matsubara, survivors of the atomic bomb blast in Hiroshima. The two visited the mayor yesterday and spoke at Tamalpais High School today, en route to Geneva to appeal to foreign ministers for cessation of atomic arming.

Legal Action Threatened By Smith

Legal action against the Novato Unified School District board to force renewal of his contract was threatened last night by Supt. William J. J. Smith when the board refused to rescind his resignation.

"Now you can expect action," Smith shot out at the board after it had voted 3-to-2 to reject his letter rescinding his resignation of last Dec. 19. He quickly left the meeting, which adjourned.

Trustees Leonora Dougherty and Marett B. Boissevain Jr. voted against the motion, splitting the board exactly as it has been in all voting on the issue of retaining Smith as superintendent.

WROTE LETTER

Today Smith would make no comment on his course of action. He admitted that he had retained Arthur M. Le Bow, San Rafael attorney, as legal advisor. Le Bow is the attorney hired by the Committee for Clear Thinking in its fight for renewal of Smith's contract.

"When it happens, it will make plenty of news," Smith said in refusing to outline his course of action.

Le Bow also would not say what legal move was planned.

REQUIRES AN ANSWER

Last night's vote came after all regular business of the board had been finished. The board members quietly read a letter from County Counsel E. Warren McGuire, saying that Smith's March 2 letter did not change the legal situation.

"I think this requires an answer," trustee William Kirk said. Other board members nodded in agreement.

Kirk then moved that the chairman be authorized to answer the letter with "a complete rejection of Smith's demands."

Smith's proponents have taken the position that his resignation was forced by the board and that it did not enter into legitimate negotiations with him. A section of the State Education Code provides that, if a school superintendent is not notified by Dec. 1 preceding expiration of his contract, the contract is automatically renewed.

County Halts Kappas Dredging Operations

County Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham yesterday told county supervisors that George Kappas's Richardson Bay dredging operations have been brought to a halt.

Kappas, holder of submerged lots near Highway 101 and promotor of yacht harbor activities, brought in a big dredge owned by Charles Hover on Monday and started large-scale operations without a permit, according to Brigham.

Brigham served a "stop work" order yesterday morning but Kappas pleaded to be allowed to continue operations to noon to clean up the work started. This was allowed on Kappas's promise of no further work until necessary permission had been granted, Brigham reported.

Brigham said this latest enterprise contemplated construction of another finger pier to which yachts could be moored. It entailed placement of fill on a submerged county road, according to Brigham.

Trial Date Set In Condemnation Suit By Hub Schools For Land

A trial date has been set for May 8 for the first of two land condemnation suits being brought by the San Anselmo School District, trustees were told last night.

The land, owned by four persons, is across Kensington Road from the Wade Thomas School and is needed by the district for expansion. The owners of the property have refused the district's offers thus far.

Coming into court in the first trial will be Fred Lancelloti of 169 Crescent Road; Mrs. Gladys Donohue of San Francisco who owns property at 125 and 129 Woodland Avenue, and Mrs. Marguerite Monteverdi of 116 Kensington Road.

A second trial, set for May 15, will involve Mrs. Harriet Vail, 87-year-old widow of 130 Ross Avenue. She is represented by San Francisco attorney Elliott Seymore.

The trustees last night reviewed administration negotiations with the district teachers salary committee and said a decision on new salary schedules would probably be reached at their meeting of April 17. The teachers are asking a 3 per cent increase.

Third, fourth, sixth and eighth graders in San Anselmo were shown to be above the national norm in achievement tests given during October and December, the board was told by John Knox Morris, Stanford University graduate student doing intern work in the district.

The trustees took under consideration a request from Sleepy Hollow residents that the community and district share in construction of tennis courts at the Hidden Valley School. A letter from James A. Kephart of 111 Sleepy Hollow Drive said more than $2,500 had been pledged by residents. The courts were estimated to cost $7,500.

The 1962-63 school calendar of 179 teaching days to coincide with that of the Tamalpais Union School District was adopted.

Resignations were accepted from four teachers: Susan Lyman, second grade at Brookside School; Martha Conway, seventh grade, Brookside; Donna Monrow, second grade, Hidden Valley School; Dixie Lee Travis, first grade, Hidden Valley. Miss Travis will continue to the end of the school year. The other three become effective next month.

Lorrine Wood was hired to teach third grade at Wade Thomas. Additional teachers would probably be named at an adjourned meeting of the trustees on April 3, Parodi said.

Fairfax Plan For Parking Gains Support

A signature a minute was collected during the first half hour of circulation of a petition asking a referendum on the new Fairfax parking ordinance, Russell Brayall of 201 Cascade Drive reported today.

Brayall started the first petition circulating among Fairfax residents last night. In a 30-minute walk he collected 30 signatures, he reported.

"This looks like it will be a sure thing," declared Brayall

The ordinance, due to go into effect Oct. 1, would prohibit parking on city streets between 2 and 6 a.m.

Brayall contends the law would result in hardships to many hillside home owners and is not supported by the majority of Fairfax residents.

Signatures of 25 per cent of registered voters of Fairfax would be required to place the issue on the ballot at a regular or special election. There are 2,800 registered voters in Fairfax.

Ranger Station Burglary Suspects Are Arraigned

Two men accused of breaking into the Stinson Beach State Park ranger station office Feb. 22 have been arraigned in Marin Superior Court on a burglary charge. Arraignment of a third man was delayed because he failed to appear.

LeRoy Grundhauser, 26, and Richard Grundhauser, 23, of Ross were arraigned and Judge Thomas F. Keating set Monday for their plea. Robert P. Sundberg, 19, of Woodacre, failed to appear and his arraignment was continued to Monday.

On Feb. 28 LeRoy Grundhauser, Sundberg and two other men were arrested in Sausalito on a charge of narcotics possession. Their trial was to be set in Superior Court today. The other men were William Curtis Allen, 21, of San Rafael, and Vincent Burke of Fairfax.

Superintendent To Have Secretary From Old District

Mrs. Erla M. Arndt will change school districts April 1.

Mrs. Arndt, who has been in the San Rafael schools office for eight years—for six years as secretary to the superintendent—will join Tamalpais Union High School District as a secretary on that date.

Her place will be taken in San Rafael by Mrs. Kathleen McAllen, who was secretary to Supt. Bert C. Corona when he was superintendent of Delano Joint Union High School District before taking over the San Rafael superintendency last October.

Volunteer Radio Workers Meeting

The Marin Radio System, a group of volunteer workers organized and trained to assist people in any kind of emergency, will hold a re-organization meeting at 7:30 p.m. Friday at College of Marin, Dan White, president, announced today.

Corte Madera Elected To GOP Board

William Henderson Jr. of Corte Madera was elected to the executive board of the Marin County Young Republicans last night, to fill a vacancy.

The Young Republicans adopted a resolution calling for resumption of nuclear testing next month and urging "other groups of Americans to also announce their support of the President in this decision."

The resolution held the United States' military position has been weakened by the 41-month moratorium on nuclear bomb tests. It declared "certain radical elements in the United States, without regard to the hard realities of the Cold War, have called upon the President of the United States to refrain from nuclear testing."

The meeting was adjourned in memory of County Clerk George S. Jones, who died last week.

Lease Accords To Terminate

Notices have been sent to 16 commercial operators in Marin City that lease agreements with the Marin County Redevelopment Agency will be terminated April 30.

Leases are being terminated because the commercial establishments are to be moved into temporary quarters in May pending redevelopment of the present commercial area.

Former Policeman Held For Worthless Checks

A slippery check passer suspected of passing nearly a thousand dollars in worthless paper since last December, was to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon to enter his plea.

He is Donald Sherman McRoberts, 36, a fast-moving shipwright who gave no permanent address. Sheriff's Inspector Bowen Bridges, who had been on his trial from Wyoming through Idaho, finally caught up with McRoberts Saturday in Novato.

Inspector Bridges and Novato police arrested him at the Village Inn. He was jailed in lieu of $5,250 bail.

Inspector Bridges said McRoberts is suspected of passing more than 26 bad checks in Marin County, most of them at Franchini's Chateau and Black Point Inn.

McRoberts' girl friend, Kathryn Potter, 35, who traveled with him, is also out of circulation, Bridges reported. She was caught in San Jose on Feb. 15 and is now at Napa State Hospital.

Bridges said McRoberts was a former policeman in Boise, Ida., and had applied unsuccessfully for a job as San Quentin correctional officer in 1960.

Marin Architect Will Be Honored

Raphael S. Soriano of Tiburon is one of four Bay Area architects to be honored with the rank of fellow in the American Institute of American Architects, it was announced yesterday.

The rank is given architects who make distinguished contributions toward architectural design. Soriano, exclusively a residential architect, has designed several homes in Marin County and at present is working on two high-rise and multiple developments in Honolulu.

Named as fellows with Soriano were Robert Anshen, Theodore C. Bernardi and Carl Warnecke, all with offices in San Francisco. They will receive the honor at the institute convention in Dallas, Tex., May 7-11.

One-Room Schools

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The National Education Association reports there still are 23,000 one-teacher schools in the United States. They have a total enrollment of nearly 400,000 students.

Talk On Communist China To Aid Experiment In International Living

Felix Greene, author of the book "Awakened China," will speak on Communist China at Redwood High School in Corte Madera on March 31 at 8 p.m.

The program is under auspices of the Experiment in International Living, to raise funds to send two students abroad during the summer.

Greene first visited China in 1958, then returned in 1960 when he met and interviewed Prime Minister Chou En-lai. During both trips, he traveled extensively through the country.

Between trips to China, Greene toured India, Afghanistan, Nepal, Burma, Singapore, Indonesia, Thailand, Laos, Hong Kong and Japan.

Greene maintains it is important for Americans to understand the hostility of China toward American policies and says he has collected "a wealth of documentation why they feel so bitterly toward the United States."

A cousin of novelist Grahame Green and the poet, Christopher Isherwood, Greene is in the import business in San Francisco.

Mrs. George W. Wheelwright of Green Gulch Ranch at Muir Beach is Marin County director of the Experiment in International Living.

Mill Valley Parks Group Wants To Save Trails

Mill Valley Parks and Recreation commissioners recommended to the city council Monday night that existing riding and hiking trails leading from Mill Valley to Mount Tamalpais be preserved.

"Tracts are going in willy-nilly and chopping off trails," said chairman Porter R. Danford. The commission asked that the city consider preservation under the master plan.

Danford said it is now possible to ride from the southern Marin Horsemen's Assn. ring in project 17 up the mountain and to lakes beyond.

Commissioners decided to give up their quest for a swimming pool for teen-agers at the Cascade Reservoir. Cost of developing the reservoir to ment requirements are prohibitive, it was reported.

The commission recommended to the city council that the reservoir be stocked with fish for a "fishing hole," and that trails be improved, possibly by work of teen-agers directed by Ronald Samet, recreation director.

It was reported that the Scott Highlands Improvement Assn. has provided $300 for shrubs and plants to be planted in the Scott Highlands Park. The association provided the park and playground equipment.

Third Exchange Student Enrolls At Tam High

A third American Field Service exchange student, Clara Enrique, 17, of Concepcion, Chile, has enrolled at Tamalpais High School.

A transfer student from Portland, she is living with Mr. and Mrs. Loren Jay of 88 Central Avenue, Sausalito. The Jays, both of whom speak Spanish, have been active in Sausalito's people-to-people project with Vina del Mar, Chile.

Tamalpais High's other AFS students are Kenya Gilson of Republic of South Africa and Bente Hildeng of Norway.

10 Gonorrhea Cases Are Reported

Ten cases of gonorrhea were reported last week to the Marin County Health Department, and Dr. Mary Jo Tonelli, acting county health officer, said the cases emphasize the "increase in venereal diseases which Marin has been experiencing generally since 1959-60.

"There's been a 68 per cent increase in the number of cases in the first three months of this year as compared to the same period last year," Dr. Tonelli said.

Venereal diseases have increased throughout the United States recently, she added, and the federal government has asked for a study.

San Rafael reported four cases of gonorrhea; Novato, three; Marin City, one, and two were reported from unincorporated areas.

SCOTCH WASN'T SO BONNIE

Bogus Booze Bottled Up

NEW YORK (UPI) —Guzzlers, has the Scotch from that bottle with the tartan-festoned labed tasted different?

If the Scotch seemed to have lost some of its highland fling you may have bought some if the 820,000 gallons of ersatz bonnie brew which the government said was sold throughout the United States for six years.

U. S. Attorney Robert Morgenthau said the whisky was produced in The Netherlands and sold here for 20.5 million dollars from 1953 to 1959.

The facts came out when a federal grand jury yesterday indicted four individuals and seven companies on charges they conspired to import and distribute the bogus booze.

The government charged that the liquor was produced and blended in The Netherlands and shipped, virtually unaged, to the United States bearing counterfeit labels and certificates. Authentic Scotch whisky must be distilled in Scotland and aged four years before it receives a Scotland seal of approval.

The indictment named Charles Haim, 68, a New York importer, as mastermind of the alleged conspiracy and said he controlled six of the seven corporations.

Others named in the 85-count indictment were Haim's son, Sidney, 42, of St. Thomas, Virgin Islands; Gladys Scheer, 47, of New York, the Elder Haim's secretary, and Robert Konig, 45, of Schiedam, The Netherlands.

Defendant companies are M. Cohn's Wine and Spirits Co., of Schiedem; Goddards, Ltd., Virgin Islands; Compania Sheffied and National Securities Union, both of Panama City, Panama; Firth Bonding Co., Sheffield Distillers, and Ross Distillery, all of London.

Two of the defendants were arraigned yesterday before federal Judge Charles M. Cashin. Charles Haim was released on $10,000 bail and Miss Scheer was freed on $2,500 bail. The younger Haim was expected here within 10 days. A bench warrant was issued for Konig's arrest.

Asst. U. S. Attorney Daniel Holm, who presented the case, said the whisky was bottled under private brand names and sold throughout the country as legitimate 8 and 12 year old scotch.

But he added something to quench the thirst of scotch drinkers.

Missed Working Days Cost U.S. $40 Billion

HOBOKEN, N. J. (UPI) — American industry wastes 40 billion dollars each year on employees who miss working days or who change jobs, according to Dr. Frederick J. Gaudet of the Stevens Institute of Technology.

This is roughly 12 per cent of the total annual business and industry payroll of more than 330 billion dollars.

Disaster Unit Checking Into Civic Center

The Marin County Disaster and Civil Defense Council decided Monday to learn whether the new county civic center is blast-proof.

At a meeting in the courthouse, the council directed Jean H. Smith, deputy assistant director, to inquire of the regional disaster office at Walnut Creek whether the basement of the new center "meets protection requirements." The council is considering using the center as a disaster operating center.

Mrs. Smith was directed also to inquire whether the old courthouse in San Rafael is blast-proof.

The council discussed a budget for fiscal 1963 but set no figure. Mrs. Smith will discuss budget items March 27 with Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell and Administrator Alan Bruce. The council next will meet at 8 p.m. April 2.

Stop-Work On 2 Homes Ordered By Hub Council

Action On Substandard Sites 3 Months After Variances

San Anselmo City Council ordered a stop-work today on two homes, which had been approved on substandard but legal building sites last Dec. 13.

The action to stop work came last night after a mass protest by a delegation of neighbors, backed by a protest petition containing 30 signatures.

The lots are at 401 and 409 Scenic Avenue in the Bush Tract, near the Fairfax border. The foundation is already poured on one of the lots.

City Administrator Douglas Flautt and City Atty. John G. Buresh gave this background on the two lots:

Each site is slightly over 2,000 square feet. However, both lots were in existence before 1939 when the city zoning ordinance went into effect. This means they are buildable lots. On that basis, the planning commission granted setback variances last Dec. 13, approving construction to developer Jay Simon of Corte Madera.

Charles R. Leitzell, chairman of the planning commission, said the lots are only 38 feet deep, lying between two roads. If the legal 15-foot setback were required on both front and back, only eight feet would remain in the center for a house. Since both lots are legal building sites, the commission granted the variance, Leitzell explained.

Monday night, developer Floyd J. Nolen of Fairfax tried to get a similar variance for 405 Scenic Avenue, a lot which lies between the two Simon properties.

A delegation of neighbors protested vigorously and the planning commission rejected the variance for 405 Scenic in a 4-to-2 vote. Now, the neighbors want to prevent construction on the other two lots.

Ray B. West of 300 Scenic Avenue last night led a protest delegation of about 20 residents at the city council meeting.

West pointed out that one of the lots is 2,009 square feet and the other is 2,236 square feet. He declared homes on such substandard lots would turn the area into a slum. West said taxes on the property amounted to about $1.50 to $2 per year.

He said he and his neighbors were not aware that building approval had been given on the two lots last December.

On motion of Councilman Robert E. Rouse, the council ordered a stop-work on the homes as of this morning. Councilmen asked the city administrator and the city attorney to have a report by next Tuesday.

City Attorney Buresh warned repeatedly that stopping work now, three months after approval had been granted, could lead to damage claims by the owner.

Hub Council Goes Over Zoning Word-By-Word

San Anselmo city councilmen waded through the proposed new city zoning ordinance word-by-word last night but failed to complete the 43-page document by midnight.

Mayor Carleton G. Little continued the public hearing and discussion on the new ordinance until next Tuesday night.

City Atty. John C. Buresh read the ordinance, section by section, taking breathers only when city fathers broke in to clarify or change the wording.

One of the main changes involves offstreet parking for residences. Under the new ordinance, more parking space will be required for all residences, one-family and apartments.

One-family homes will need two parking spaces and duplexes must have four spaces (two for each unit).

Parking requirements for apartments will be as follows: One space for studio and one bedroom apartments; one and one-half spaces for two bedroom apartments; and two spaces for three or more bedroom units.

Hallinan Drops Mellon Suit —His Son Picks It Up Again

Patrick F. Hallinan of San Francisco, 27-year-old son of Belvedere attorney Vincent Hallinan, yesterday stepped up as legal stand-in for his father.

The elder Hallinan withdrew a suit in which he demanded removal of Thomas J. Mellon of Kentfield as San Francisco police commissioner.

He immediately filed a substitute action on behalf of his son which demands—as in the first suit—that Mellon be removed from the $100 a month job and repay the city some $7,200 he has received in salary since his appointment in January, 1956.

Hallinan said he withdrew the original action because he is not a resident of San Francisco though he maintains a law office there.

Mellon, his wife and children reside at 4 Rock Road in Kentfield but he maintains a voting residence at the home of a friend in San Francisco.

Civic Center Landscaping Bids Opened

A Corte Madera firm bid under the architect's estimate as one of five whose bids on civic center and fairgrounds landscaping were opened before Marin County supervisors yesterday. Decision on the bids will be made next Tuesday.

Paradise Engineering entered a total bid of $143,551 as compared with estimate of $145,000, according to architect Aaron Green. Its bid A, for civic center exterior landscaping including sprinkler system, was $91,126 plus $50,758 for fairgrounds and $3,951 for interior administration building plants.

Other bidders were A. J. Shooter of San Rafael at a total of $149,724. Watkin and Sibbald of San Anselmo, $144,700, and Huetting and Schromm of Palo Alto, $208,785.

Last Of Old Guards To Serve Washington

PIQUA, Ohio (AP)—"The last of Washington's Life Guards" rests in a tiny cemetery carved out of a forest north of Piqua.

The man who outlived the rest of General Washington's personal Revolutionary War bodyguards, a Virginia farmer named Lewis Boyer, was buried in Wesley Chapel cemetery in 1843.

Cadets Visiting At Hamilton Base

Squadron 13, consisting of 25 Air Force cadets, arrived today at Hamilton Air Force Base for a five-day visit to the 78th Fighter Wing and its assigned units.

The squadron is one of the top cadet squadrons in the Air Force Academy. It was cited as the honor squadron for the year 1960-61 in both academic and athletic competitions. It is sponsored by the 78th Fighter Wing.

The cadets will be given a wing briefing, a base tour and a visit to the 83rd and 84th Fighter Interceptor squadrons. They will return to Colorado Springs Sunday.

The French Academy once wrote a French grammar so complicated that schools refused to use it.

Marin County Declared Rabies Area For Fifth Straight Year

Meeting yesterday in Berkeley, the Region 4 Rabies Advisory Committee also redesignated Alameda and Contra Costa counties and added Santa Clara County which had been dropped from the list in 1960.

A county is declared a rabies area if one case of the disease in an animal has been verified during the year ending in March. Nine cases were reported in Marin during 1961 —seven skunks, one calf and one raccoon. There have been no verified cases during 1962.

Statewide, 253 cases were reported for last year, the third highest number of rabies in the state since 1948.

In rabies areas, dogs must be vaccinated and suspected animals must be quarantined.

Almost three and half million people live in the 398 square miles of Hong Kong. The population is predicted to increase by another million during the next 10 years.

Food expenditures account for 20 per cent of the U.S. consumer's income. French and English consumers spend 30 per cent for food, while Russians spend 50 per cent.

Civilian Workers Win Army Awards

Two Marin County civilian employees of the Presidio in San Francisco have been awarded $15 each for useful suggestions to improve efficiency, it was announced today.

They are Russell R. Otten, radio repairman of 6 Plymouth Circle in Mill Valley and Bruce Enderby, auto mechanic of 21 Jefferson Avenue in San Rafael.

Cash and certificates totaling $1,115 were awarded 17 employees for outstanding work and suggestions.

Sausalitans Speak To Sister City Via Short Wave Radio

Sausalito has taken to the air waves with its People-to-People exchange program with sister city, Vina del Mar, Chile.

Through radio amateur Donald Batten of Belveron Gardens, Loren L. Jay and Mrs. M. Justin Herman, spoke Saturday by short wave radio to Vina. They spoke in both English and Spanish.

Both are members of the Sausalito program. The parley was set up by Batten with a fellow amateur in Vina, whom Batten knows only as Bill. The Sausalitans spoke to Carlos Ansaldo, Vina tourist director; Wendell Hall, administrative director of Instituto Chileno NorteAmericano de Cultura, and Senorita Harrison, also of the institute.

Chances of rain falling on San Francisco any July 15 are 1 in 25.

DESTROYER LEFT HIGH AND DRY

The Destroyer Monssen, a victim of the vicious storm which struck the eastern seaboard earlier this month, lies high and dry at Beach Haven, N.J. The ship was being towed from the mothball fleet to be put back in action. Two destroyers will be employed in an attempt to pull her off the beach. (UPI photo)

Bridgeway Traffic Control Signals To Be Used In Emergencies Approved

Electric signals to control traffic on Bridgeway in case of fire or other emergencies were approved last night by the Sausalito City Council

The signals are to be placed on Bridgeway at Princess Street and Caledonia Street. They will cost $10,000. the vote was 4-0, Councilman George Keeney absent.

Problems connected with the construction of the Albert-Lovett Corp. luxury apartments on South Street were discussed after it was revealed that the rip-rap on the bay must be redone.

Rip-rap consists of rocks placed along the water's edge to hold soil. City Manager Charles A. Brown was directed to ask the El Cerrito firm to fix the rip-rap. He was also asked to determine whether building inspector William L. Hynes is qualified and has time to inspect the two and one-half million dollar construction.

Brown said the firm has hired an inspector and that city engineer oJhn L. Hunter also inspects occasionally.

The council raised a question of whether the fee of $1,100 for a use permit was enough. It had been suggested when the job started the fee be $10,000.

Council and citizens also asked: Is there a swim pool or not? Are sewer pipes to be a blight on the landscape?

The Sausalito council also:

1. Set up a committee to discuss the next action to be taken on development of the city's central waterfront. Charles E. Finney said, with passing of time, previous actions of council are often forgotten. He asked for action so Sausalito would not be left with the "same dreary, half-used paved lot."

2. Continued to next Tuesday appeal by Marian Frick from planning commission denial of use permit to build a hotel on Bulkley Avenue.

3. Continued discussion of a planned unit development proposal to next Tuesday.

4. Acknowledged a letter from Ralph P. Lyons thanking the city for removing a large log on the beach near Lyons' home at 202 Valley Street.

Conservation League Elects

Dr. J. F. Gustafson of Mill Valley has been elected president of the Marin County Conservation League. Gustafson replaces Mrs. Albert J. Evers.

Named first vice president was Mrs. Harold Summers. Re-elected as second and third vice presidents respectively were Dr. Paul Wilson and Mrs. B. K. Dunshee.

Mrs. William Stout was elected fourth vice president; Lothar Salin was named recording secretary and George Phelps was elected treasurer.

Sanitation Unit Meeting Slated

Richardson Bay Sanitary District directors will hold an adjourned meeting Monday to discuss a three-year line cleaning contract. They will also discuss a policy on connections for condominium apartments.

The board agreed Monday night to consider an exchange of property with Samuel Neider Estates to realign Ricardo Road near the district's pumping station.

Directors pointed out that initiation for annexation to the district must be started by property owners with a definite request for service.

Appropriation For Aviation Gas Funds Voted

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday voted 4-to-1 to appropriate $2,500 to qualify for state aviation gasoline funds to develop county airports. The county new has $22,449.89 in its airport fund.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman voted "no" after seconding the motion by Supervisor William Gnoss. Fusselman he opposed it because "it provides funds for a special group."

He said he understood the money would be to develop the Novato Airport. Gnoss and Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell denied this and asserted the funds would be for airports in general—the supervisors to decide where to spend the funds.

Sausalito Council Agrees On Dog Policy With Enforced Leash Law

Sausalito City Council members last night agreed on a dog control policy which has as its main point the proposal that a leash law be enforced for dogs in commercial areas.

It is a policy, not an ordinance. The council referred it to the City of Larkspur which is preparing a uniform ordinance for consideration by cities in the county.

The policy asks that dogs not commit nuisances, not be allowed to run in packs in streets endangering motorists, and that action be taken to have the Humane Society pick up dogs if a number of neighbors complain about barking.

City Manager Charles A. Brown told the council the Humane Society, in picking up dogs, uses its judgment in carrying out the policy.

Sausalito has more than 300 licensed dogs, and many unlicensed, said Brown.

Councilman Michael Harris said, under the policy, "Any dog going into the public park does so at his own peril."

"I think Sausalito is a special little town," said Mrs. Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford). "I think they put too many restrictions on people. Lots of people object to everything—dogs, cats, birds, everything. Let Larkspur take care of their own business. . . . It's an unworkable law."

"We can try it out and we can repeal it if it doesn't work," said Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr.

Word Of Mouth Message Mixup

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A woman called school officials after her 6-year-old daughter came home and announced her first grade class was going to see "the handsome gorilla."

The mother calmed down when informed the class would see a play, "Hansel and Gretel."

Woman Charged With Eichler Extortion Try

REDWOOD CITY (AP) — The young wife of an East Palo Alto barber sought an attorney today to represent her against charges she tried to extort money from the wife of an Eichler homes builder under threat to expose something in her past.

Police said the telephone caller first demanded $25,000 but later agreed to $500.

Mrs. Reba Elaine White was released on $1,000 bail yesterday after being booked at the San Mateo County jail on charges of attempting extortion against Mrs. Edward Eichler of Atherton.

The district attorney's office said this is what happened:

Last Friday Mrs. Eichler, 28, received a telephone call to her unlisted number. The caller said she had papers containing damaging information about Mrs. Eichler's pre-marriage life and would turn them over for $25,000. Mrs. Eichler notified police.

Police monitored future calls during which the price was pared down to $500 and arrangements made for a payoff at Flood Park in Atherton.

Mrs. White was arrested Monday as she emerged from a woman's restroom at the park. Police said she admitted making the telephone calls. But she insisted a couple, threatening to expose something in her own past, had made her do it.

Mrs. Eichler said there was nothing in her past to make her fearful of exposure but she went along with the pretext on advice of police. Her husband is vice president of Eichler Homes.

HITCHCOCK MAY GET FEATHERS CUT BY STATE'S BIRD WATCHER

BODEGA (AP)—Movie producer Alfred Hitchcock found himself in trouble with Marshall Dillon today—Marshall C. Dillon, that is.

Dillon, game management agent for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, said Hitchcock had caught more seagulls than his special permit allowed to use in a movie "The Birds" that Hitchcock is filming at Bodega Bay in Sonoma County.

The movie company also had 60 songbirds protected by the migratory bird treaty, Dillon said.

Girl Says She Shot Air Force Father To Help Her Mother

TOKYO (UPI) — The 15-year-old daughter of an American army sergeant from Petaluma has told Japanese police she killed her father with a shotgun to help her mother.

Sgt. Edgar Wilson died shortly after the shooting.

Beverly detailed the shooting calmly to police. She appeared much less shaken than her mother, Mrs. Jesse Lee Wilson, according to an air force spokesman.

The spokesman declined to give extensive details of the confession, saying that investigation of the case was not yet complete.

Novato School Suspension Agreed Upon

Students who are capable of doing passing work but are failing in three or more subjects in Novato High School face probation and possible suspension, the Novato Unified School District board agreed last night.

The board informally agreed on the policy, but delayed final passage, pending writing in new stipulation on re-entry of students into school and getting a legal opinion on the policy from the county counsel.

Board chairman Earl Marshall wanted the suspension policy so written "that it would be unnecessary to make changes in it." He also said the board should review each suspension.

Fielding Reese, vice-principal, said if the board went over each case, "a suspension policy for administrators was unnecessary."

Trustee Marett B. Boissevain Jr. maintained the board did not need to act on each case—"just receive a notification."

Trustee Joseph Sereda held out for a written report from the school psychologist, but did not receive support from other board members.

Ralph Giovanniello, assistant superintendent in charge of instruction, has advocated the policy for several months. He reported three other high schools in Marin County use a similar policy. These and other Bay Area high schools using it have found that putting pupils on probation spurred most of the failing students to do passing work, he said.

Baby Sitter Suspected Of Drinking On Job Wins Court's Continuance

A San Rafael baby sitter, suspected of being drunk on the job, won a two-week continuance yesterday before she enters her plea to a charge of child neglect.

Mrs. Juanita Lois Neighbors, 40, of 908 B Street, appeared with attorney Harold F. Reide before Judge Harold J. Haley in Marin Municipal Court yesterday. At Reide's request the judge continued the case until April 3.

Mrs. Neighbors is free on $262.50 bail. Novato police arrested her Monday after a complaint by Mrs. Lucille Katheryn Dare of 7 Dusel Court, Novato. Mrs. Dare's granddaughter, Janice Burton, 3, had been turned over to the baby sitter's care Sunday. Mrs. Neighbors was to return the child by dusk.

When the child had not been returned at 2 a.m. Monday police launched a search and found Mrs. Neighbors at the home of her husband in San Rafael. Police said Mrs. Neighbors admitted going out with her husband and drinking.

Hospital Seeking $75 A Month More For TB Patients

A request by Ross General Hospital to increase the price of care for county tubercular patients by $75 a month was referred by Marin County supervisors yesterday to the county counsel and administrator.

Dr. John C. Siemens, hospital administrator, requested the charge be increased to $425 from the present $350. He said supplies, labor and other costs had increased.

The County Supervisors Also:

1. The board decided not to have phones on the supervisors podium in the new civic center. "The calls interrupt the board's business," said Chairman Walter R. Castro. "They would be a nuisance."

2. Former agricultural commissioner Thomas W. Peryam declined appointment to the county Senior Citizens Committee.

3. Hugh Cassidy, Lloyd Brooks and George Scott, representing labor, and George Henderson and Don McIsaac, representing business and agriculture, were named to the Committee on Vocational Training.

4. The board voted 3-to-2, William D. Fusselman and Peter Behr opposing, to ask county counsel to rewrite the animal control ordinance to cover cats and horses. The Humane Society asked the change. The ordinance now covers dogs only.

5. The County Hospital and Farm was authorized to close its laundry May 15, call for bids for commercial laundry service and dispose of worn-out equipment "in particular the 20-year-old mangle."

6. Marin County Disaster and Civil Defense Council was granted an extension from March 6 to May 15 to present recommendations on a disaster plan. The board agreed to meet with the council and Contra Costa disaster director Will H. Perry Jr. in the supervisors' chambers at 8 p.m. April 24.

7. Purchase of fluorescent antibody equipment, used in rabies diagnosis and similar work, for the Health Department at $1,735.20 was authorized. The federal government will pay $867 of the cost.

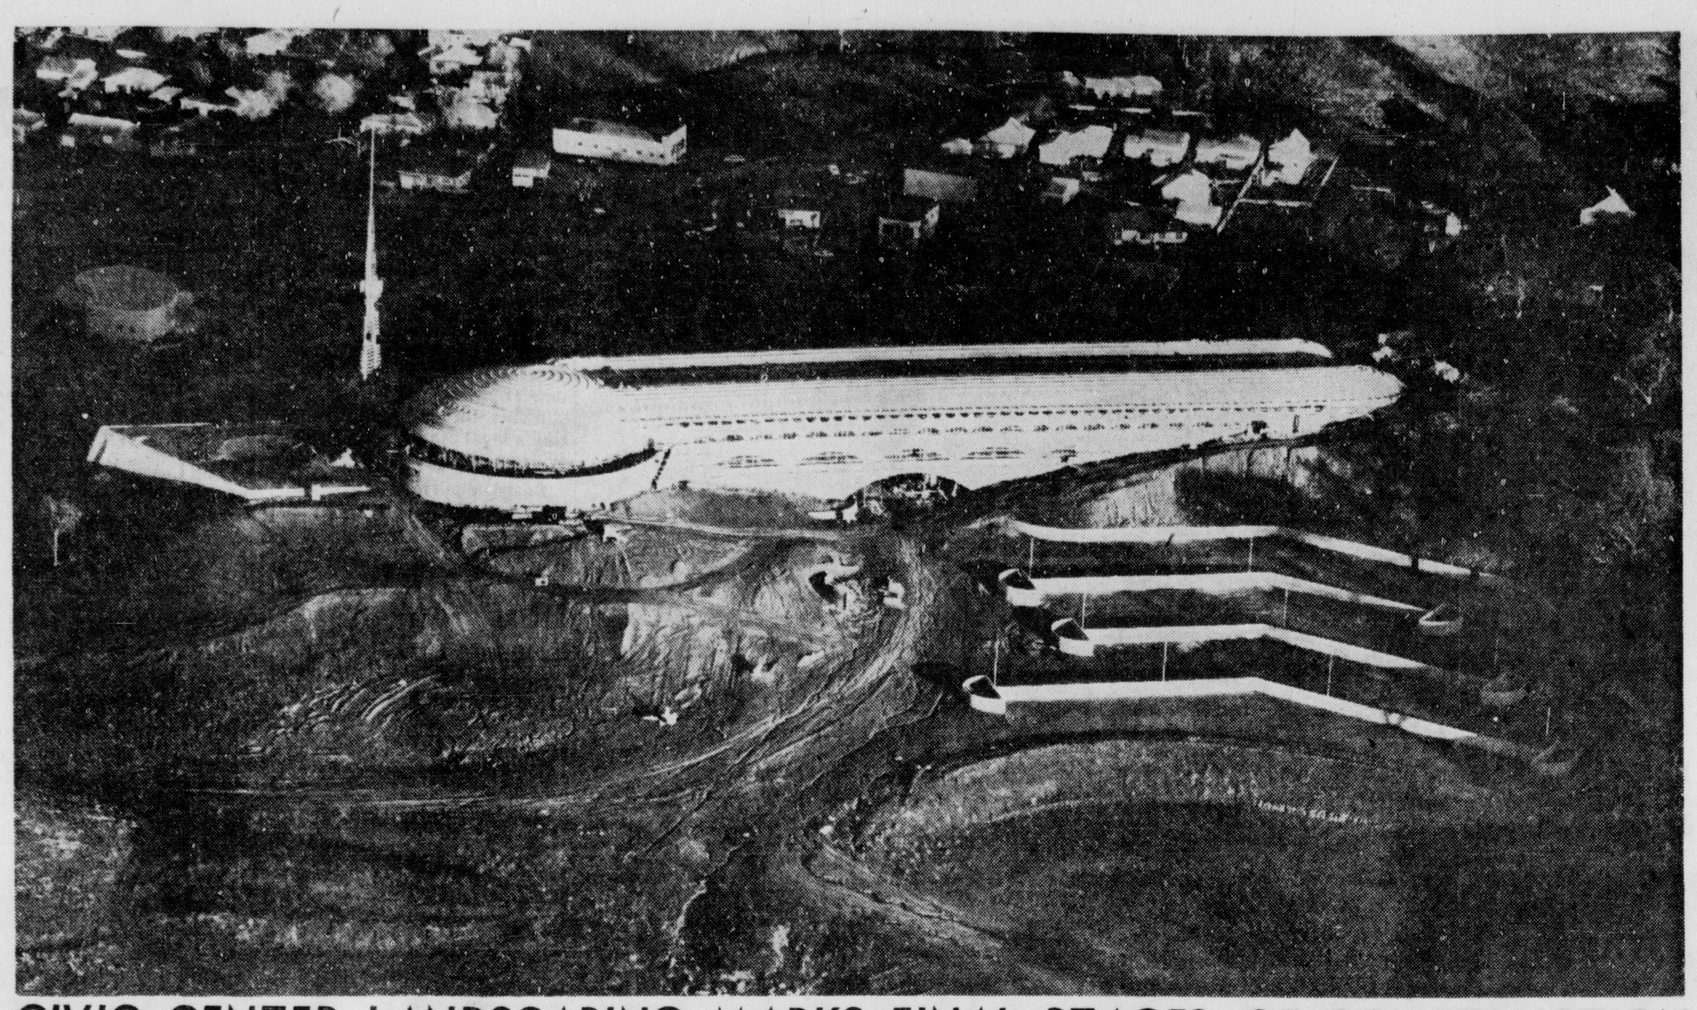
8. Dorothy Madsen was appointed kitchen-helper at $245, and William Milani janitor at $335, at the county hospital.

9. Mrs. Leslie Mayne complained about horses on Bolinas beach, with result the board asked the county counsel to advise the parks and recreation commission what it may do to prohibit animals on the beach.

10. The board approved hiring a professional geriatric researcher to investigate services to Marin County's aged.

11. The Public Works Department was instructed to advertise for bids on an estimated $185,000 first stage of widening Sir Francis Drake Boulevard — said to be currently carrying 20,000 cars daily—from Alto to Wolfe Grade.

12. Ebasco Services, Inc., was employed, for not more than $500 on per diem basis, to make a study of county medical social work positions.



CIVIC CENTER LANDSCAPING MARKS FINAL STAGES OF CONSTRUCTION

With final work being done on the roof of Marin County's Civic Center, the long wing of the center seems launched from the hillside where retaining walls for a parking area are being built. The half-circles at either end of each wall mark turning areas for cars and repeat the arches of the building's facade. Below the parking area, a lagoon has been dug out. Novato School Additions Passed

Additions to the Rancho and Olive elementary schools estimated to cost $309,038 were authorized last night by the Novato Unified School district board.

The board instructed architects Reid, Rockwell, Banwell and Tarics to draw up final specifications so bids can be called as soon as possible. The state allocations board approved both projects on March 13.

The Rancho school additions are estimated to cost $258,727, of which $100,000 will come from district bond funds and $158,727 from state loan. These will include six classrooms and a multipurpose room which will open onto a paved patio area.

At Olive School, an estimated $50,311 addition will enlarge the multipurpose room, add some storage and reconstruct the administration offices. Of this, district funds will pay $32,000 and state loan $18,311.

The board also voted to seek state approval for a $149,056 addition to the Lu Sutton School for a multipurpose room kitchen and adjoining corridors.

The Novato School Trustees Also:

1. Appointed L. H. Hall of Boyes Hot Springs as inspector for the additions to the high school. Hall's appointment was on a temporary basis as he told the board other commitments will take him away from the job before it is completed.

2. Heard Richard Banwell of the architectural firm report pre-fabricated portable classrooms are available for $10,000 each or that one designed by his firm could be built costing between $6,500 and $8,500. The board deferred action on buying three of them, one for Rancho school and two for Lu Sutton school, until its next meeting.

3. Authorized the administrators to post speed limit signs on school property with speeds to be recommended by the Novato police department.

4. Set for next Monday night a special meeting with the San Jose School District Board at Novato administration building to study the future of the San Jose district.

5. Set a special meeting next Tuesday night to consider tenure and probationary teacher lists.

6. Authorized the Chalkdusters, Novato chapter of the Future Teachers of America, to spend April 11 in practice teaching. More than 70 members of the organization are planning to spend that day as student teachers in various schools in the Bay Area.

Water Board Applies For Sailing Program

Application to the State Board of Health for a trial sailing program for Stafford Lake was made last night by North Marin County Water District directors.

The newly organized Novato Sailing Club asked the board to allow sailing on the lake.

The State Health Department has been interested in a comprehensive recreation program for the lake, said Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager. It may not want just a partial recreational use of the lake, he said.

If allowed, this would be the first use of this type for a Marin County reservoir, Gilbert said.

In other action, the board:

1. Approved $7,600 for an automatic monitoring device at the water treatment plant.

2. Approved extensions for the 18-lot Benton Manor subdivision off Leese Lane and 20-lot subdivision at Rancho Village Unit 6.

3. Approved an agreement with the Novato Fire District for installation of new fire hydrants in the downtown area, water and fire district each to pay half the cost.

Board Votes To Reinvest County Funds

Marin County supervisors yesterday voted unanimouhly to reinvest $150,000 of capital improvement funds due for withdrawal April 1.

The vote was on recommendation of Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell. He said the county now has $635,021.22 available in its active capital improvements fund plus $600,000 in an inactive bank account.

The redeposited money will earn three and one-half per cent interest during a period to end Dec. 1.

The $1,235,021.22 includes civic center monies, Veterans Memorial funds and Nursing Home reconstruction funds. It also is used as a clearing account for fair site improvements. The fair expenditures are reimbursed 100 per cent from state executive order parimutuel funds.

Savings Bond Sales

Sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds in Marin County during February totaled $98,477, D. C. Davis, county savings bond chairman, has announced.

Novato Toastmasters Elect Joseph Bendik

Joseph J. Bendik, 2041 Carolyn Way, Novato, has been elected president of the Novato Toastmasters Club.

The election of new officers was held at the club's meeting at Franchini's Chateau, San Rafael, last week.

Also elected were Eugene Arntz, educational vice president; Richard Beyer, administrative vice president; Joseph Shean, secretary treasurer, and James Thornton, sergeant at arms.

Free Services From County Looked Into

A hot potful of "free service to Marin cities" problems was handed the county supervisors yesterday.

First came Communications Director J. Mansfield Lewis, in a tizzy because Larkspur had given 60 days notice of intention to terminate county service of the city's short-wave radio system.

"After we've done all the hard work," fumed Lewis, "they want to let a private contractor get the gravy."

But this brought argument that as the county health department is to provide food handler inspection without charge in cities which have adopted a new ordinance, maybe the same should be done about radio service.

'MEN NEEDED'

A few hours later, enthusiasts for giving the cities a break were chilled by an appearance of county sanitation chief William Desmond with word that the food handler inspections will add 2,831 manhours yearly to his work load.

All in all, Desmond said he needs at least three more men since new laws on pool inspections will add 1,989 more manhours.

Administrator Alan Bruce and Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell were asked to report in two weeks as to equity of present radio maintenance rates and the overall picture.

NOT LEGAL

Supervisor William D. Fusselman said maybe city people paying 62 per cent of county taxes should get radio maintenance free just as they were due to have free food handler inspections.

"It would be illegal to give completely free service," contended Lewis. He suggested compromise on a pattern of Orange County, which provides free maintenance for radios of fire and other safety vehicles.

Larkspur City Manager Ronald E. Piper, who asked Lewis to terminate the county contract May 1, said today he had not yet signed with General Communications Engineering but has the firm's signature on a contract for cheaper service.

The San Rafael City Council on Monday night also authorized a contract with General Communications, although Councilman David Menary Jr. suggested perhaps the county could be persuaded to do the very thing proposed yesterday —provide the service at no cost to the city. The San Rafael contract has not yet been signed.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —State Sen. Richards (D-Los Angeles) today was a qualified candidate for U.S. senator for the June 5 primary. Richards, in his second term as senator, filed nomination papers yesterday with the county registrar.

Bay Master Transit Plan Taking Shape

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—First steps toward a master transportation plan for the Bay Area were taken yesterday in the legislature as funds for a water study of the Marin-Sonoma coastal area were stripped from the state budget.

San Francisco Sen. J. Eugene McAteer introduced a resolution directing the State Highway Transportation Agency and the State Office of Planning to outline what such a master plan study should include. Cost of such a "prospectus" would be between $35,000 and $50,000 of available federal funds, he said.

After delivery of this study, probably by November, the state, the nine counties of the Bay Area and various interested private organizations could cooperate on the master plan, McAteer declared.

He also said the $300,000 not yet spent or committed in the study of a new Marin-San Francisco bridge, will be withdrawn from the Toll Bridge Authority and returned to the state highway fund. McAteer last year introduced legislation authorizing a $500,000 investigation of the new span then requested it be stopped because of opposition. He said the $200,000 already spent had been mainly for traffic surveys and other studies which would be useful in the over-all transportation investigation.

In the Senate Finance Committee yesterday, a $54,695 item for study of water resources on the coast of Marin and Sonoma from the south end of Tomales Bay to the north end of Bodega Bay, was eliminated. The cut was part of an $808,000 slash of the Department of Water Resources budget.

The department had planned a two-year study of the area's water requirements and supplies in light of expected population and visitor growth brought about by establishment of the Point Reyes National Seashore, the erection of PG&E's atomic power generator on Bodega Head, harbor development and establishment of a University of California marine research facility at Bodega.

A second phase of the study would have been to find sites for "recreation and fisheries enhancement reservoirs" in the area.

The senators eliminated the item on recommendation of the legislative analyst who called it "a low priority general planning project which was removed from the department's budget last year by the legislature. No significant change has occurred."

Marin Assemblyman William T. Bagley's bill to put daylight savings time extension on the June rather than the November ballot cleared its first hurdle yesterday. The Assembly governmental efficiency and economy committee gave it a "do pass recommendation after a hearing in which only Bagley testified.

San Rafael Chamber Board Approves City Hall Site

The San Rafael Chamber of Commerce board of directors yesterday unanimously approved the property east of the city library on Fifth Avenue as site for a new city hall.

The location, extending from the library to C Street and through the block from Fifth to Mission Avenue, was recommended by Ebasco Services after a study of San Rafael's city hall needs.

In announcing approval by the directors, chamber president Jess France Jr. said: "The San Rafael Chamber of Commerce for sometime has strongly advocated the need for a new city hall. We now feel the need is acute and strongly urge the adoption of this new site and the implementation of the construction as soon as possible."

Mayor John F. McInnis told city councilmen Monday night he would expect them to be ready to vote on city hall location at the council's April 2 meeting.

New Hof Brau-Style Restaurant To Be Opened May 1 In Sausalito

Peter A. Alioto of San Francisco announced today plans to open a restaurant, Peter Alioto's Arbordale, in Sausalito by May 1.

To be located on the site of the former Arbordale Bar and Restaurant on the corner of Bridgeway and El Portal, it will be similar to the Peter Alioto Hof Brau in San Francisco. The restaurant will serve German-type food and beer.

Space for the restaurant will include the former Skipper's Cafe, as well as a portion—the counter section—of the former Central Pharmacy. William Atwood and Ralph (Skip) Sommers, partners in Skipper's, have sold their equipment to Alioto.

Builder Bob Rose told the Sausalito City Council last night that his firm, Sausalito Parkway Associates Inc., is remodeling the interior of the Sausalito Hotel, upstairs over the proposed Arbordale.

"We're demolishing damage caused by the 1956 earthquake," Rose said. He reported the upstairs will remain an hotel.

Adventists Name Guest Speaker

Lee H. Taylor, associate professor of educational administration at Pacific Union College in Angwin, Napa County, will be the guest speaker at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Fairfax Seventh-Day Adventist Church, 75 Park Road, Fairfax.

In addition to his teaching duties at the College, Taylor is principal of both the elementary and preparatory schools on the college campus.

Good Citizenship Awards To Be Given

F. Harold Schutte, 28 Loma Linda Avenue, Ross, state president of the California Society of Sons of the American Revolution, will present good citizenship medals Friday in Los Angeles to two newspapermen and a television commentator.

George R. Hearst Jr., publisher of the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner; Herbert H. Krauch, editor of the Herald-Examiner, and George Putnam, KTTV television station commentator, will receive the awards.

Brookside Principal Quits To Teach Again

Jean Stover, principal at Brookside School in San Anselmo for 13 years, resigned last night to return to teaching.

"I have always loved teaching and I prefer to finish my years in education doing just that," she said in a letter to the board of trustees.

Miss Stover, of 179 Butterfield Road, is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and College of Marin and received her degree in 1934 from San Francisco State College.

Her first teaching job was in 1935, as teacher and principal at a one-room schoolhouse in Fallon in North Marin. For nine years she taught at Drake Elementary School which stood on the present site of Sir Francis Drake High School.

Miss Stover's resignation will become effective at the end of this year. She will probably teach the sixth grade at Brookside, said Supt. Stephen L. Parodi.

Retired Sergeant Pleads Innocent

Alfred George Drumright, 42, recently retired Army master sergeant, has pleaded innocent by reason of insanity to a charge of molesting two Mill Valley girls.

On motion of his attorney, William O. Weissich, Judge Thomas F. Keating in Marin Superior Court appointed doctors Gerald Hill and Robert W. Burke, both of San Rafael, to examine Drumright. He delayed setting date for trial to April 9. A charge of satutory rape was dismissed.

Drumright, of 508 La Verne Avenue, Mill Valley, was accused of molesting girls aged 9 and 11 about January, 1961.

Censorship Not The Way To Assure Subdivision Truth

There's a public hearing next Tuesday at which proposed censorship of real estate advertising will be the principal topic of discussion.

The matter comes before the public under unusual circumstances. The eight-point "Subdivision Advertising Practices Which May Not Be Used" has been proposed by Real Estate Commissioner Wynne Savage.

But last week, the Real Estate Commission, which is an advisory body to the commissioner, voted unanimously that the proposed regulations should be eliminated.

Savage has the final say and the last we heard the public hearing was still on, indicating he pays little attention to his advisory commission.

Major issue in this battle, which has been going on for a year or so now, is Savage's demand that he be given censorship authority or — as he more euphoniously puts it — pre-publication approval of subdivision advertising.

Now we don't favor untruthful or deceptive advertising, but the state already has adequate laws against it. Time and again the California Newspaper Publishers representatives in Sacramento have tried to pin Savage down as to whether he has ever attempted to stamp out the type of advertising he refers to by prosecuting under present law.

The facts show he hasn't.

Instead, he wants to be set up as censor of what advertisers say; it would be easier for him. Besides, he would be able to build a tremendous bureaucracy with a huge staff to read and pass on the tremendous number of subdivision advertisements every day in California.

Censorship is not the way to bring truth to advertising. The right way is to make the advertiser responsible for what he says in his ads.

That's the way the law reads now.

We think Real Estate Commissioner Savage is derelict in his duty for not enforcing present law if, as he charges, there are flagrant violations.

Spring Surf Sweeps In

When the tide of spring sweeps into Marin with a yellow, pink and white surf of blossoms, most of us are elated. Spring at last!

The hills and dales are green with grass and bird songs fill the air. Fragrant perfumes from thousands of blossoms delight the senses.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

ONE THIEF OUTWITS ANOTHER

Disillusioned by the duplicity of a fellow criminal, a thief was thrown into jail without so much as a crumb of satisfaction.

After snatching a briefcase containing a $2,000 payroll, the law-breaker rushed off.

But someone who saw the theft took off in pursuit and caught him after a short chase.

He did, only to return with the policeman and find no stranger, no briefcase and no money.

The first thief was caught a second time, but the second one got away.

"If it was anybody's briefcase," complained the unhappy culprit, "it was mine. I stole it."

The lure of money tempts many to try short cuts to wealth, security and ease.

If you spend more effort being an instrument of God's truth and less in feathering your own nest, your richer life will be a pleasant surprise.

"That the temper of your faith—more precious by far than gold which is tried by fire—may be found unto praise and glory." (1 Peter 1:7)

Let me devote my efforts, O Lord, to bringing others to true wealth.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

It's Nice To Have A Man Around House When Things Need Fixing

By JOY STILLEY
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—My husband is a "do it yourself" enthusiast.

Whenever I ask him to fix anything around the house he replies with enthusiasm "Do it yourself!"

Since I am about as skilled with tools as I am at eating soup with chopsticks, anything that gets out of whack in our place is likely to remain that way indefinitely.

We once had a pop-up toaster that failed miserably to live up to the first part of its name.

If I stood guard, armed with a toothpick, I could sometimes pry the toast out before it turned black.

My husband finally tired of so much charcoal in his diet, he decided to take the toaster apart to find out what was wrong.

The job took him two hours and three bottles of beer, but it was an outstanding success. Not only did the toaster work better than when it was new, but he had two parts left over when he got the thing put back together again.

He may be slow to start a fix-it project, but once he has one under way he is extremely thorough.

My wall-type can opener recently gave up altogether. This situation resulted in a number of home-cooked meals which I thought would spur my provider to provide me with a brand new electric opener.

I WASN'T about to get one without a struggle, however. The struggle was all on the part of my husband—who spent his evenings for nearly a week trying to coax that old can opener to go back to work again.

He tightened every screw in it, he poked and pushed and sharpened and cleaned it and finally in desperation took it out to the sidewalk and pounded it with a hammer. The opener punctured the can all right, but no amount of sweet talk would make it cut out the lid.

"PERHAPS it needs oiling," I suggested timidly. He scoffed but humored me by squirting in strategic places.

CUTTING UP THE PIE—

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

He Defends The McGuffey Readers

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Dr. Wallace W. Hall is quite correct in doubting "if Col. Glenn would have got off if the people who had made preparations beforehand had relied upon the McGuffey readers," since the McGuffeys are literary in content, not scientific and mathematical.

But he can hardly doubt that the clear and moving statements the same Col. Glenn has expressed concerning his feelings toward God and his country are more closely akin by far to the honest piety and patriotism of the McGuffey Readers than they are to the enormous spiritual inanities and banalities found in such abundant quantities in the readers which, as one of the chief school administrators in the state, Dr. Hall must know are being read by hundreds of thousands of California school children.

Another Bridge Is A Must

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your editorial last night (March 15) on the highway situation in Marin certainly hit the nail on the head.

Anyone who thinks Highway 101 or the Golden Gate Bridge is not at capacity is simply not informed. Rapid transit on the bridge may be a help, but it will be no better than the now defunct system formerly on the Bay Bridge.

Ferries we all like, but the days of most commuters working near the Ferry Building are past. Today business is scattered throughout San Francisco and moving to the outskirts daily. But like myself working in South San Francisco, I would not leave Marin because we love it here.

Another bridge is a must and planning should start now. The same goes for another freeway and connecting roads between various areas such as Fairfax, San Anselmo and Terra Linda.

Congratulations again on the excellent article. Here's hoping it opens someone's eyes!

Alcatraz: Perfect Socialist State

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As I was driving to San Francisco the other morning in intermittent showers and broken overcast, I noticed that the sun was shining on Alcatraz Island and it stood out like a jewel. I thought, perfect socialistic state? Why shouldn't it stand out like a jewel. They have socialized housing, their food and clothing is furnished, and they have all the physical needs of life. Isn't it strange that they have to put bars on the windows, build fences, and post guards around to keep the people in!

Then I thought of my days in the army. That was really the perfect socialistic state. I had my food furnished, my socialized housing, my clothing, and all other physical needs. In addition, they even gave me spending money. But wasn't it strange almost everyone, including myself, looked forward to the day when we could get out!

Then I thought of the people behind the iron curtain in those perfect socialistic states. But isn't it strange they have to build walls in Berlin; barb wire and mine fields along the iron curtain to keep these people from leaving this socialistic paradise!

But the strangest of all is that in spite of the above, we have voters in America who will vote for socialistic candidates and put them in high offices. And then these officials appoint to high offices people who are even more socialistic. In fact, one of these high appointees in Washington, D.C. now has described a socialistic state as a "heaven on earth."

Of course, these people are only doing this for our own good; and when we are completely socialized, they will build fences to keep us in, also for our own good!

55 Too Old For Police Chief?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Having attended seven Fairfax Council meetings in 1960 to learn the pattern of decisions by the public elected city fathers, I am not in the least surprised at the appointment of our new chief of police . . .

As the age limit seems to be the deciding factor in the selection of our new chief of police, let me express myself in behalf of Officer Vonderheid . . . How old he was when he first served the people of Fairfax is for the most part immaterial. According to the article in the paper, this man is now 55 years old, and considered too old to handle a chief of police assignment according to the city's expectations . . .

If the retirement age limit is 65 with an additional two years thrown in for reasons not yet explained, Officer Vanderheid could serve our city for 10 more years as chief of police and finish his term as a police officer who seems to have the respect of a large majority of our fair city population, with the exception of a minority group with political influence . . .

From the impartial standpoint in behalf of the police department in Fairfax, Captain Vonderheid should in all fairness have the rating of chief of police due to the fact that any emergency call to the department can be answered by prompt and efficient action by a man who can find any location by mere instinct, including some brain damaging chuck holes on his way of call.

As for the people of Fairfax I can only express myself as an individual who can bark up the tallest tree in our city park and imagine that any one of the city fathers is sitting comfortably on the very top, laughing at me. It is therefore up to the total population to let the city fathers know in no uncertain terms what the wishes of the majority are on the same basis when we are called to the polls whenever the need presents itself . . .

A. P. TRABER.
Fairfax.

George Brathwaite, up to here in Pentagon longwindedness, thinks this is the way Washington big brass might have delivered three reasonably famous declarations:

1. It is my command that we relegate the torpedoes to perdition. Proceed at maximum celerity at 119 degrees NNE on our erstwhile established course.

2. Let no homo sapien engage in the firing of his nonnuclear weapon until the precise moment when the sclera and cornea of the enemy are visible.

3. My expressed desire is to receive not more than one of the following: (A) Complete freedom, entailing all its pleasures and responsibilities, or (B) The loss of my life in a manner to be determined at a later date.

Data Processing System May Be Aid To County Clerk's Office

If ever I lost a finger, say by having it run over as I was reaching for the remnants of a choice Havana, my mathematical ability would vanish.

I was brought up by a system of calculating on a basis of 10. The currencies in Tasmania and Ceylon threw me. And unless I count on my fingers I'm a gone duck.

All this inclines me toward Marin County's data processing system. Why not let machines do the work? And anyhow, present day school men love to throw out snide incomprehensible remarks like how 2 plus 2 sometimes comes out 5.

THAT MAY BE, but it's disturbing. I would rather let machines cope with it. On my fingers, 2 plus 2 is still 4. But I could be wrong, and any time I might lose a finger or even two.

George S. Jones was a very industrious man and he darn well wanted to see everybody around him being industrious, too. My hunch was that this sometimes caused him to line up with the untold millions who love to do things the hard way, especially if that is how matters have long been.

It struck me some while back that our county clerk might be missing a bet by his insistence on the position of solitary hold-out about use of data processing among major county departments. But nobody told him much.

FRIEND JONES really knew a lot and that's the truth. He had powerful forces of precedent and history on his side. So most of us were meek and mild when he spoke. We respected his background.

Don't anybody sell short his kindly successor George Gnoss when it comes to know-how. He has been around long enough to learn his job thoroughly and Jones took pains to impart all he could, for he was stepping out of county employ by his own choice at the end of this year.

Gnoss is a younger man and he has an open mind. A few hours after he was placed by necessary supervisors' action in the job of his suddenly deceased chief, I happened to ask whether he thought the clerk's office could perhaps profit by data processing aid.

His response was prompt and honest. He said he was prepared to consider anything that will make for efficiency and proper means of speeding things up. So don't be surprised if data processing has its chance.

I am the last person on earth to give advice on any such point. And I'm sure that there will be no rushing in by such of our local experts as Leon deLisle, Mike Mitchell or Arleigh Sewall. But I am equally sure that if Gnoss asks their advice and cooperation they will be more than glad to study and, if it proves desirable, to program.

OTHER COUNTIES find data processing helpful when it comes to operations of the county clerk, and especially as to election procedure. San Mateo County is a notable example. Voting can be much speeded.

Work of the jury commissioner in selecting jurors for both superior and municipal courts could be lightened and made more efficient by data processing. For example, there are such categories as lawyers and school teachers where automatic exemptions are given. By suitable earmarking of cards with such names, those people just wouldn't be drawn.

THERE IS A time element involved in studying and analyzing the work of any office to see whether data processing can provide efficiencies and economies.

But with reasonably prompt action by Gnoss (and in his quiet efficient way he certainly is likely to give this) we might have improved handling of June primaries.

Passing Of John B. Long Marks End Of An Era In Lobbying

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—No man is timeless in his physical being and but few live their lives to provide a heritage for future generations.

And as long as there are newspapers, the never-ending struggle of the late California Newspaper Association's general manager for the "right to know," will remain as his gift to society. The press of California is freer and better for his having been.

SO MANY people owe so much to John Budd Long that had he lived 35 years instead of 30 days after his retirement, he never could have collected the debt, nor would he have wanted to. And now, about the only payment his friends can make is in continuing espousement of the principles for which he stood. He would want it that way.

The newspaper was the heart and soul of the man who was known as the "little giant" in the fraternity of the press. Nothing affecting the newspaper or its people was unimportant to Johnny Long, whether it was a birthday card, or legislation involving millions of dollars.

JOHN'S WORKING hours were unusual. In fact, he never had working hours as many know them now. His service to the Fourth Estate ranged from midnight to midnight, seven days a week.

The many years John spent at the state Capitol lobbying for the interests of the newspapers, and protecting the press from the incursion of unjust laws proposed by people afraid of the truth, will stand as a monument to decent representation.

Never once was he mixed in a shady deal. His word was his bond and all with whom he dealt could depend on his handshake.

Long lived a lusty, swashbuckling life up to the time his first heart attack several years ago slowed him down.

Many of his good times were in the line of duty but in all the years he was in Sacramento, nothing ever interfered with his practice of being in his hotel room at a certain hour to check in via telephone with Mrs. Long to whom his devotion was complete.

HE LOVED life, but was wise enough to recognize some of its futilities. They never bothered him much, for there always was too much to do in the things that counted.

The secret of his success was that he loved people. And as a result, people loved Long. This accounts for the hundreds upon hundreds of friends he made throughout the state and nation, not only among his own fraternity, but in all other fields as well. For Long was as much at home with the barbers and the bootblacks as he was with the governors and judges, sometimes even more.

LONG'S RETIREMENT and subsequent passing marks the end of an era in legislative advocacy and a type of lobbying which probably never will be seen again. Many are the times Long walked into a committee room and by the sheer force of his personality secured approval or disapproval of legislation.

The "little giant" never abused his standing as a lobbyist, nor did he take advantage of his position because he represented the press. His accomplishments were based on merit and principle.

Giants Finally Get Top-Flight Efforts

PALM SPRINGS (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants, alleged to be contenders for the 1962 pennant, finally looked the part yesterday.

With Willie Mays leading the way, the Giants pounded out a 14-3 win over Los Angeles Angels in a wind-whipped struggle.

The two teams were to meet here again today with the Angels planning to start their best pitcher, Ken McBride, against the veteran Billy Pierce of San Francisco.

Mays put on the kind of show that only he can. He whacked a triple in the third with the bags jammed and two down. In the fourth, he sliced another three-bagger into right field.

But his most amazing feat came on a hit-and-run play in the sixth.

Orlando Cepeda also brought smiles to Giant partisans when he crashed his first homer of the spring. Many think the big guy can hit 50 or more four-masters this year over the longer season and against the thinned out pitching staffs caused by the addition of two new teams to the league.

Other Giants with their hitting shoes on yesterday included Jose Pagan, who rapped three hits, and Manny Mota, who collected two. Mota is hitting an even .500 this spring.

Juan Marichal went the first five innings and looked like he could have breezed the other four without much strain. He surrendered three hits and one run, while fanning five.

Gaylord Perry finished up and gave up six hits and two runs over four innings. It was the Giants' sixth win in 11 spring battles.

Sad Sam Sidelined

By Associated Press Sports Writer

A medical report showing "a low-grade malignancy" has delayed Sad Sam Jones' comeback try and clouded the Detroit Tigers' pitching picture.

Jones, 36, whose trademarks are a whiplash pitching delivery and an inevitable toothpick, will be lost to the club for an indefinite period while undergoing special treatment.

The righthander, one of the National League's leading pitchers until he slipped to 8-8 and was bothered by some arm trouble with San Francisco last year, was aiming at a comeback this season.

Tiger Manager Bob Scheffing said he had hoped to use Jones as a principal backup man to his Big Three: Frank Lary, Jim Bunning, and Don Mossi.

He will not resume pitching until he completes a series of eight X-ray treatments recommended by doctors in Detroit's Ford Hospital.

Jones underwent minor surgery three weeks ago for removal of two lymph nodes on the back of his neck. At that time doctors said there was no malignancy.

A sample of the removed tissue was sent to Detroit where doctors made additional tests and said Jones has "a low-grade malignancy."

While Jones' comeback bid was sidetracked, a couple of others appeared to be in full blossom yesterday. Early Wynn and Herb Score, each attempting a comeback with Chicago, looked sharp in the White Sox 2-1, 12-inning victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

BURLY VETERAN

Wynn, the burly veteran who will be shooting for his 300th victory this season, worked the first three innings and allowed two hits. It was the first time he had been in an organized game since forced to the sidelines by arm trouble last July.

Score, who had only a 1-2 record last season, became the first White Sox pitcher to go five innings and was nicked for only an unearned run in the eighth.

The New York Yankees' first loss of the exhibition season was the other major development.

The Yankees, who had won nine straight, lost to St. Louis 3-2 in 14 innings. A wild throw to first by second baseman Pedro Gonzales, attempting to complete a routine double play that would have ended the inning, let in the winning run. Two of New York's five errors let in the other two runs.

REDS WIN

The National League champion Cincinnati Reds outlasted Philadelphia 14-13 in a free-hitting affair in which the Phillies collected 20 safeties. Philadelphia lefty Chriss Short gave up a two-run homer to Tom Harper in the fourth, then retired 12 in a row.

Steve Boros doubled off Hoyt Wilhelm with two out in the ninth and drove in the tying and winning runs in Detroit's 5-4 victory over Baltimore. Kansas City jolted Warren Spahn and Milwaukee 7-1 with Bobby del Greco and Bill Ryan hitting homers off the aging lefty. Hank Aaron homered for the Braves.

In the other games, Boston used a three-run ninth to beat Cleveland 7-5, and bonus rookie Bernie Allen drove in two runs in Minnesota's 4-3 triumph over the New York Mets. The Houston - Chicago Cubs game at Tucson was rained out.

Goalby Edges Into Top 10 Win Circle

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Bob Goalby, who won $1,400 for his third-place finish in the St. Petersburg Open, edged onto the PGA's list of top 10 money winners this week.

Salmon Spawn Low In Central Valley

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California's 1961 Central Valley salmon spawn is one of the smallest on record, according to the State Fish and Game Department.

The agency yesterday set the 1961 spawn at 256,000 fish, about half the size of the 1960 run when 485,000 king salmon spawned in the area.

Seals, L.A. Battle For Playoff Spot

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The battle lines are drawn for the Northern Division playoffs in the Western Hockey League but San Francisco and Los Angeles are fighting down to the wire for a playoff berth in the Southern Division.

Edmonton clinched first place among the Northerners with a 9-3 victory over Seattle in the Alberta capital last night. This means the playoff final will pit Edmonton against the winner of a semi-final between Seattle and Calgary.

League-leading Portland clobbered Los Angeles 6-3 at Los Angeles. The Blades meet San Francisco tonight at the Cow Palace. Los Angeles and San Francisco are vying for third place.

Spokane, second in the Southern Division, bowed 8-5 to Vancouver. Spokane will play either Los Angeles or San Francisco in the Southern Division semifinals, the winner to meet Portland in the finals.

There were two hat tricks for Edmonton, both Ed Joyal and Doug Messier firing in three goals.

The Portland-Los Angeles affair was tied 2-2 after two periods. Then the Buckaroos' Gordon Fashoway and Gene Achtymichuk scored on close-in shots to give Portland the edge. Ed Panagabko brought Los Angeles rooters to their feet with a goal at 8:03 but Portland't Bill Davidson quickly countered with another and Dale Rolfe of the Bucks completed the scoring.

Saints Play Tomorrow

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —With second place in the American League's Western Division all sewed up, the San Francisco Saints will be out to even their second half mark at 19-19 tomorrow. They play the Hawaii Chiefs.

San Francisco led most of the way but Hawaii put on a last quarter rally that came close to pulling it out of the fire. Hawaii's Herbie Lee was the game's highpoint man with 26. Mike Farmer had 23 for the Saints.

San Francisco pulled to an 11-point lead in the second quarter. The Chiefs closed it to 56-53 at halftime. Farmer swished in four 20-footers in the final minutes of play to clinch the victory.

Is That Big Giant Hunt For A Take Charge Guy Really Necessary?

CONNOLLY

I'll give you three guesses as to what the San Francisco Giants are looking for and which all the coaches, scouts, and hanger-ons, believe the club needs most . . . a "take charge guy."

And what does a take charge guy mean?

I wasn't sure until someone suggested it might be a straw-boss infielder, a sort of top sergeant-like player who yaks a lot and who seems to be the sparkplug of the club. He has to be a fellow who is gabby but intelligent; noisy and demonstrative; an inoffensive guy who can "needle" a teammate without getting busted on the chin; a heads-up fellow who plays to win and wants everybody else to be on their toes.

Alvin Dark, Giant skipper, hasn't yet settled on the take charge guy—in other words a leader whom the other players on the club would respect for his hustle.

JIMMY DAVENPORT was first groomed for the job but he is too gentlemanly, too scholarly, too unassuming, not bossy enough.

Orlando Cepeda would qualify for the job but they want him to think only of his hitting and not burn up his endless energy on a smaller but important task.

A lot of the coaches and scouts think if Tom Haller, rookie catcher, played regularly, he would qualify as the number one take-charge guy. They think he has the leadership and intelligence required. And one of these days he might be the boss. But he has to play oftener than is expected of him this year.

A take-charge guy looks after the pitcher, who might be losing his temper or might be fighting with the umpire. He consoles the pitcher when an error is made and he pats him on the seat of his trousers when he fans a batter retiring the side.

DOESN'T SEEM like too much of a task, especially when you think of a third base coach on one side and a first base coach on the other side and the manager in the dugout, all close enough to yell instructions to the infield or wave back or call in an outfielder.

Chuck Hiller, perhaps one of the most hustling infielders on the club, is a likely candidate and if Chuck makes the first string he could rate the take-charge-guy job. He talks and yells and chats in between his chewing and is cocky enough for a half dozen guys. But unless the rest of the team has the utmost confidence in him, which they haven't just yet, he can't land the leadership job.

So the take-charge theory still haunts the Giants. When Dark was with the Giants he was named captain and took charge. Billy Martin did the same for the Yankees when Casey Stengel ruled the roost.

There were dozens of such characters whom bench managers inadvertently picked as field captains, only later to find out they had picked their own successors.

IF YOU WANT my opinion, the take-charge-guy talk is a lot of palaver for grown up professionals. It's just as silly as the delays in baseball today. But we put up with it, mainly because baseball is baseball.

We can forget the take-charge guy and the delays. But let's have players getting paid, not so much for the number of home runs they hit, but for the part they play in winning ball games.

S.A. '9' Cops Title

The San Anselmo Merchants —who have won the double league 1962 San Francisco AAA semi-professional basespring and summer, manager Pete Maggi announced today.

The Merchants grabbed their second title of the year by dumping the San Mateo National League champions in an 8-0 shutout Sunday behind the pitching of Merchant Nino Geminiani. The Detroit Tiger rookie, who left for training camp this week, gave up three hits and struck out nine.

The Merchants collected 13 hits. Vince Pallavicini and Bill Ahearn got three hits each and Bob Ostaggi and Geminiani two each.

Tam Swimmers Win

Tinsley Stetson and Keith Krieger paced the Tamalpais Indians to their third swimming victory of the season in downing Lowell High of San Francisco, yesterday, 79-15.

Krieger won the 400 freestyle with a time of 4:52.9 and the 200 freestyle in 2:16.3. Stetson picked up his firsts in the 100 butterfly, 1:03.5, and in the individual medley, 2:26.7.

Tony DePrado, 50 freestyle, 24.7; Ducan Green, 100 backstroke, 1:21.6; Kenyon Gilson, 100 breaststroke, 1:16.2; Jack Mosher 100 freestyle, 55.6; Bob Andre, diving, 133½.

Medley relay for Tam, 2:03.7 (Green, Steve Detsch, Richard Creighton, Gilson); 200 free relay for Tam, 1:44.6 (Doug Chambers, Brian Laurie, Nick Zilka, Norman White).

Double winner on the Tam Bs was Allan Nesbitt: 50 butterfly, 29.9, and 100 individual medley, 1:10.4.

Redwood Is Beaten

Redwood High's Giants suffered their first baseball loss of the season yesterday to McClymonds High at Oakland, 14-9. The winners' Bill Steele, son of former Olympic track star Willie Steele, wrecked the Giants with a grand slam homer, a triple and double driving in eight runs.

Tar Golfers Tied

Eact team ended the afternoon with a seven-and-one-half point total in match play. Leading Tar medalist for coach Cal Riemcke's crew yesterday was Carl Klenz who fired a five over par 76. Next best Tar medalists were Bob Marelli with an 81 and Earl Brown with an 82. San Francisco's Dave Egan led the field with a 75.

Despite Skipper's Optimism, Bucs Hurting For Manpower

FORT MYERS, Fla. (UPI)—The Pittsburgh Pirates seem to lack to much to figure in the 1962 National League Pennant race, although manager Danny Murtaugh insists they could go all the way ff: Pitcher Vern Law comes back; He finds a catcher to back up Smoky Burgess; He finds some reserve outfielders; Plus a left handed relief pitcher.

Those are all big if's.

Law who won 20 games in 1960 when the pirates won the pennant, chalked up only three victories in 1961 when a sore arm sidelined him most of the season. He's been taking it easy thus far this spring.

"I don't want him throwing too hard down here," Murtaugh explains. "I've told him all I want him to do is to be ready by April 10; That he doesn't have to make this ball club in spring training."

Law, his doctor, and Murtaugh all are hopeful, but it's far too early to tell. Without him back in his 1960 form, the Pirates probably will lack the necessary pitching.

There certainly is nothing wrong with the Pirates' starting outfield of Bob Clement, Bill Virdon and Bob Skinner, although the latter slumped off to .268 in 1961 with only three homers and 42 runs batted in. Clemente is their big power gun. He batted .351 with 23 homers and 89 RBI's while the fleet Virdon hit .260 with nine HR's and 58 RBI's.

None of the three rookies available for utility outfield duty has an impressive record. Larry Elliot hit .257 at Columbus, Howie Goss .299 at Vancouver and Ron Woods .309 at Hobbs. It looks like Woods needs at least another year of seasoning.

A SLEEPER?

Donn Clendenon, who hit .290 at Columbus with 22 homers and 82 RBI's, may turn out to be an outfield sleeper. He normally is a first baseman, but with Dick Stuart available for that spot, Murtaugh is giving Clendenon a shot in the outfield.

The Pirates are loaded with shortstops—regular Dick Groat and reserves Dick Schoefield and Johnny Logan—and one of the latter two might go in a deal for either outfield or catching help.

The infield is set with Stuart on first, Bill Mazeroski at second, Groat at short and Don Hoak at third. Mazeroski and Groat slumped off in 1961 from their showing of the year before, but it's still considered one of the best all around infields in the league.

Murtaugh is going to try out the veteran Harvey Haddix in the bullpen. The southpaw was 10-6 last season, in spot starting roles and relief. If Haddix should make it big and little right hander Elroy Face (6-12) comes back to his 1959 and 1960 form, the Pirates would be all right in the bullpen department.

For starters there are Bob Friend (14-19), Joe Gibbon (13-10), Wilmer Mizell (7-10) and Tom Sturdivant, who won five games for the Pirates after they bought him from Columbus; and, of course, Law if he is sound.

WEIGHT RIGHT

Friend came to camp this spring weighing the same as he did when he broke in back in 1951—197 pounds—and Murtaugh believes this lighter weight will help him. Mizell is 31 and cannot be used every fourth day. So if Law doesn't come back, the Pirates could be hurting and for starting hurlers.

Possibilities include Earl Francis, whose 2-8 record of last season was not as bad as is looks on paper for he lost some tough games; Alvin McBean (3-2), Larry Foss who won 10 at Asheville; 41-year-old Diomedes Olivo who won 11 at Columbus and could be used for middle inning relief; Tom Parsons, 4-3 at Columbus; Tommie Sisk, who won 14 and lost six pitching for Asheville and Columbus, and Bob Veale, a 14-game winner at Columbus.

Murtaugh has especially high hopes for Francis.

"He has the makings to become one of the best," claims Murtaugh.

Even if he does, Murtaugh still will need a sound Law and that additional catching and outfield strength. The chances that he will solve all of these ifs are not too bright.

MATT HAZELTINE ALL-TIME 49ER

Eight current San Francisco 49ers, including former Tamalpais High School star Matt Hazeltine and Terra Linda resident Abe Woodson, are named on the club's all-time team chosen by northern California sportswriters and sportscasters. Six players were unanimous choices on the squad announced yesterday.

Defensive tackle Leo Nomellini drew a maximum 17 votes to lead the present squad members.

Offensive tackle Bob St. Clair had 16. Others named from the current club are offensive tackle Bob Thomas, offensive guard Ted Connolly, defensive end Dan Colchico, linebacker Hazeltine and Woodson and Dave Becker of the defensive secondary.

Quarterbacks Y. A. Tittle and Frank Albert each received 14 votes.

OFFENSE

Ends—Wilson (17) and Gordy Soltau (12).

Tackles—St. Clair (16) and Thomas (6).

Center—Johnson (17).

Quarterbacks — Albert (14) and Tittle (14).

Halfbacks — McElhenny (17) and Johnny Strzykalski (11).

DEFENSE

Ends — Ed Henke (15) and Colchico (6).

Tackles—Nomellini (17) and John Woudenberg (7).

Linebackers—Hazeltine (15), Visco Grgich (14), Hardy Brown (10) and Norm Standlee (8).

UCLA's Big Problem? Cincinnati Bearcats

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The coach of the UCLA basketball team figures he has one big problem in the NCAA tournament that opens Friday.

The Bruins, who started slowly but won 11 of their last 12 games for an 18-9 record, meet the second-ranked Bearcats, the defending champions, in the second semifinal game Friday night. Topranked Ohio State plays Wake Forest in the opener, with the winners to meet Saturday night for the championship.

Wooden said his team's improvement could be traced to two sophomores — backcourt ace Walt Hazzard and pivotman Fred Slaughter. "We have no outstanding stars," he said, "but our boys have surprised many people."

"Jitters," said Wake Forest Coach Bones McKinney when asked his team's problem. "This is the first time we have gone this far in an NCAA tournament."

Wake Forest, considered at the start of the season one of the nation's powers, faltered at first, but came back behind All-America Len Chappell to win 12 straight for a 21-8 record.

The Deacons are champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference. Cincinnati is from the Missouri Valley Conference, Ohio State from the Big Ten and UCLA from the Big Five.

Ohio State, which won the NCAA in 1960, then lost a 70-65 overtime thriller to Cincinnati in last year's finals, is trying to become the second former champion to come back after only a year's absence. Kentucky did it in 1951, after winning in 1949.

The Buckeyes 25-1 are led by the nation's top player, three-time All-America Jerry Lucas.

Stars Named For Shrine Cage Classic

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Rosters of the squads for the 11th annual Shrine East-West basketball game were announced yesterday.

The nationally televised game will be played March 31 in Kansas City.

Virgil Aikens Takes Beating From Youth

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Virgil Akins, once king of the world's welterweights, bowed to youth last night as he took a beating from Garland (Rip) Randall in a 10-round fight.

Akins, 34, landed few effective blows. Randall, former Texas lightweight champion, swarmed over the St. Louis veteran throughout the fight.

ACE SCORED BY MARINITE AT SONOMA

Four Marin golfers invaded the Sonoma Golf and Country Club course Sunday.

Dr. P. J. McDermott fired the ace on the 190-yard No. 14 hole, using a No. 4 wood.

College Ski Stars Test Squaw Valley

Nearly 100 entrants from 17 colleges and universities earned spots at the starting gates by qualifying in tough regional competition during the past season.

Defending Denver University is still highly favored to go home with top team honors with its nine-man squad showing depth in all events, including NCAA individual jumping champion Chris Selbeck.

Howard May Have Lost First Base

SARATOGA, Fla. (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers may be abandoning any plan to make Frank Howard their regular first baseman.

Howard, who cost the Dodgers $108,000 as a bonus baby out of Ohio State University, hasn't been at first base since the third exhibition game. When the squad first assembled in Florida, Manager Walt Alston told newsmen he planned to use Howard and Ron Fairly for a week at a time.

Alston explains in this way: "I'm anxious to find a regular first baseman, and the sooner we make up our minds, the better off we'll be. I know that Fairly can do the job. I haven't seen much of Harkness and he deserves a shot."

36 Antlerless Hunts Proposed By Fish, Game

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The State Fish and Game Department today recommended 36 anterless or either sex deer hunts for 1962 with a total of 14,285 permits to be issued.

The Fish and Game Commission will consider the proposal at a meeting in Sacramento April 2.

The counties involved are Lassen, Placer, Nevada, El Dorado, Amador, Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Fresno, Tulare, Kern, Mono, Inyo, San Bernardino, Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego.

Last year 11,040 permits were issued for 27 hunts but only 4,556 deer taken in the hunts.

Foursomes Play At Indian Valley

The Indian Valley Women's Golf Club was host at a best-ball foursome Saturday with the men and women participating .

Two foursomes tied for first place:

First — Mrs. Arthur Sears, C. B. Coleman, Mrs. William May and Henry Hartman; Mrs. Andrew Mahony, Ernie Korn, Mrs. Al Leach and Charles Russell, with 55.

Second—Mrs. William Sparrow, Lynn Sumpter, Mrs. Frank Duddy and Wally Schmoker, 57.

West, Baylor Set Pace For Lakers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jerry West led the Los Angeles Lakers in scoring during the National Basketball League season. But Elgin Baylor had a better average, although he played in 27 fewer games.

West, playing in 75 games, attempted 1807 field goals, connected on 799; attempted 966 free throws and made 712 of them. West's total points were 2,310, his average 30.8 per game.

Baylor, who went into the Army early in the season, played in only 48 games, attempted 1,590 field goals and made 680; tried 631 free throws and was successful on 476. His point total was 1,836, his average 38.2.

MACY'S SAN RAFAEL, FOURTH AND COURT, GLENWOOD 6-3333; OPEN MONDAY AND FRIDAY 'TIL 9 P.M. ALSO THIS WEEK THURS. 'TIL 9:00

Freezing Method Given

Three varieties of Girl Scout cookies will go on sale Friday through April 9, offered by Brownie, Intermediate and Senior Girl Scouts throughout Marin.

Chocolate mint, Danish assortment and vanilla and chocolate sandwich cookies are packaged in special Girl Scout boxes.

"Girl Scout Cookies, baked last week especially for the Marin sale, are the freshest cookies we've ever had," says Mrs. R. W. Morgan, sale chairman. Because of this strictly fresh policy, the boxes of cookies will keep in their original wrappings for at least three months, she says.

With the home freezer playing such an important role in the lives of many families, Girl Scout cookies can be eaten when convenient, thanks to freezer storage.

At a recent tour of the cake and cookie factory, neighborhood cookie sale chairmen were given the opportunity to see Girl Scout cookies, destined for the Los Angeles Cookie sale, being baked. Among the interesting sights at the factory were the shortening barrels marked "kosher," and huge carts filled with ground cocoanut.

TO FREEZE . . .

The storage temperature should never exceed 0 degrees, and they will keep better at minus 10 degrees to minus 30 degrees.

For defrosting: Open packages only after they have reached room temperature. Whenever possible bring the cookies to room temperature slowly by taking them from the freezer and putting the package in the refrigerator for a few hours before exposing to room temperature.

All profits from the sale are used to supplement the funds received from the United Bay Area Crusade which furnishes about 50 per cent of the council's operating budget. It will also assist in the further development of Treasure Mountain camp at Sierraville, and in maintaining Arequipa, Fairfax.

A perpetual trophy, awarded to the troop selling the most cookies, per capita, in each district, and ribbon awards to each troop selling two cases per girl, are highly prized by the 230 Marin troops. An additional award this year is a special 50th Anniversary gold medallion for each girl selling two cases of cookies.

A SURE-FIRE non-separating style Hollandaise tartar sauce makes your Lenten fish dish all the more appetizing.

Swiss Steak For Family Or Company

Swiss steak needn't be relegated only to the family table. Add new trimmings and a dash to the flavor, and you'll create a dish appropriate for company fare.

Swiss steak is an old favorite when it comes to preparing the less tender beef steaks. Often round steak is used, but if you are really in a penny-pinching mood, select an arm or blade steak from the chuck.

The meat for Swiss steak is always floured. Swiss Steak Supreme does not call for the meat to be pounded, but frequently this is done. It shortens the cooking time by helping to tenderize the meat, states meat cookery expert Reba Staggs.

Swiss Steak Supreme is braised with tomatoes, onion and Worcestershire sauce and served on rice with colorful green pepper rings. The secret in cooking any braised meat dish is never hurry it. Long, gentle simmering results in a tender, delicious finished dish.

SWISS STEAK SUPREME

2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
Lard or drippings
1 onion, sliced
1 can (1 pound, 4 ounces) tomatoes
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 green pepper, cut in rings
3-cups cooked rice, if desired

Combine flour, salt and pepper. Dredge steak in seasoned flour. Brown in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add onion, tomatoes and Worcestershire sauce. Cover tightly and cook slowly 2½ to 3 hours or until meat is tender. Add green pepper rings and continue cooking 5 minutes. Serve steak on rice, if desired. Garnish with pepper rings. Six servings.

Slash The Crust

Wait Until Cooked

Savory Addition

Drain Sprouts

Professional Look

Ham Leftover

A small amount of baked ham leftover? Dice it and add it to green peas that have been cooked with strips of onion and seasoned with salt, pepper and butter.

Pineapple Sauce For Roast Pork

ROAST PORK WITH PINEAPPLE SAUCE

Loan pork roast (5 or 6 pounds)
2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons cold water
1 tablespoon strong soy sauce
1 tablespoon cider vinegar
1 bouillon cube
1 cup boiling water
1 cup fine crosswise slices green celery

Roast pork according to your favorite directions. Drain pineapple. In a saucepan stir together the cornstarch and cold water until smooth; add ⅓ cup of pineapple syrup, soy sauce, vinegar, bouillon cube and boiling water; cook and stir over moderately low heat until bouillon cube dissolves and sauce thickens and clears. Add drained pineapple and celery; reheat; serve with roast pork. Sauce is slightly sweet and sour.

Saucy Way To Fix Lenten Fish Dish

Looking for an easy, gourmet way to dress up fish dinners? Serve "Hollandaise Tartar Sauce." This quick-to-make, foolproof sauce is prepared with a can of Hollandaise sauce with added onion, pickle relish, parsley and some extra seasonings. Most tartar sauce is served cold, but if you prefer a hot mixture heat the sauce gently before serving. Enjoy "Hollandaise Tartar Sauce" on cooked asparagus, green beans or broccoli, too.

HOLLANDAISE TARTAR SAUCE

1½ tsps. instant minced onion or 2 tblsps. finely chopped green onion
1 tblsp. chopped parsley
¼ tsp. dried dill
1/16 tsp. salt
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 can (6 oz.) Hollandaise sauce

Combine pickle relish, onion, parsley, dill, salt and lemon juice. Stir into Hollandaise Sauce. Serve with pan-fried, steamed or baked fish. Makes about ¾ cup.

Veal Chops

Dry those veal chops thoroughly with paper toweling when they are to be browned without breading.

Right To Serve

Jubilee Celebration Begins To Honor Hadassah's Founder

By JOY MILLER

She was a small woman, and she once said she was able to work 18 hours a day because she kept the Sabbath and had a cast-iron stomach.

She was Henrietta Szold, who 50 years ago founded Hadassah, women's Zionist organization of America, with 12 women. Today its 318,000 members begin a year-long celebration.

The national chairman of the golden jubilee, Rose Halprin, ranking Zionist woman in the world outside Israel, recalls Miss Szold as "very quiet, but with a bit of a temper; without ego, tremendously creative."

BORN A RABBI'S daughter in 1860, Miss Szold was as militantly devoted to American democracy as she was intensely Jewish. "She was a good example of the synthesis of two cultures," Mrs. Halprin points out.

In 1909 she visited Palestine and was appalled at the high mortality rate of mothers and babies. Back in this country the organized Hadassah—which is Hebrew for Queen Esther — and in 1913 sent two trained American nurses to Palestine to begin mother-child care as a start of a health program.

During World War I Hadassah was asked to send a medical unit. A group of 44 doctors, nurses, dentists and sanitary engineers landed in 1918, set up hospitals in five major cities and a nursing school in Jerusalem.

"THAT WAS at a time in a part of the world where a girl was trained to stay in the home as wife and mother," says Mrs. Halprin.

Hadassah's medical unit was to Miss Szold the beginnings of "countrywide constructive institutional medical service," and in effect laid the groundwork for public health in what later became the state of Israel.

Today the huge medical center at Kiryat Hadassah—Hadassah Town—on Jerusalem's outskirts carries on the original preventive-curative approach by consolidating its healing, teaching and research facilities.

"And we've turned our eyes to the emerging countries of Africa that need help desperately," explains Mrs. Halprin. Israel is teaching African doctors and nurses in special courses, and sending out medical teams to assist and advise.

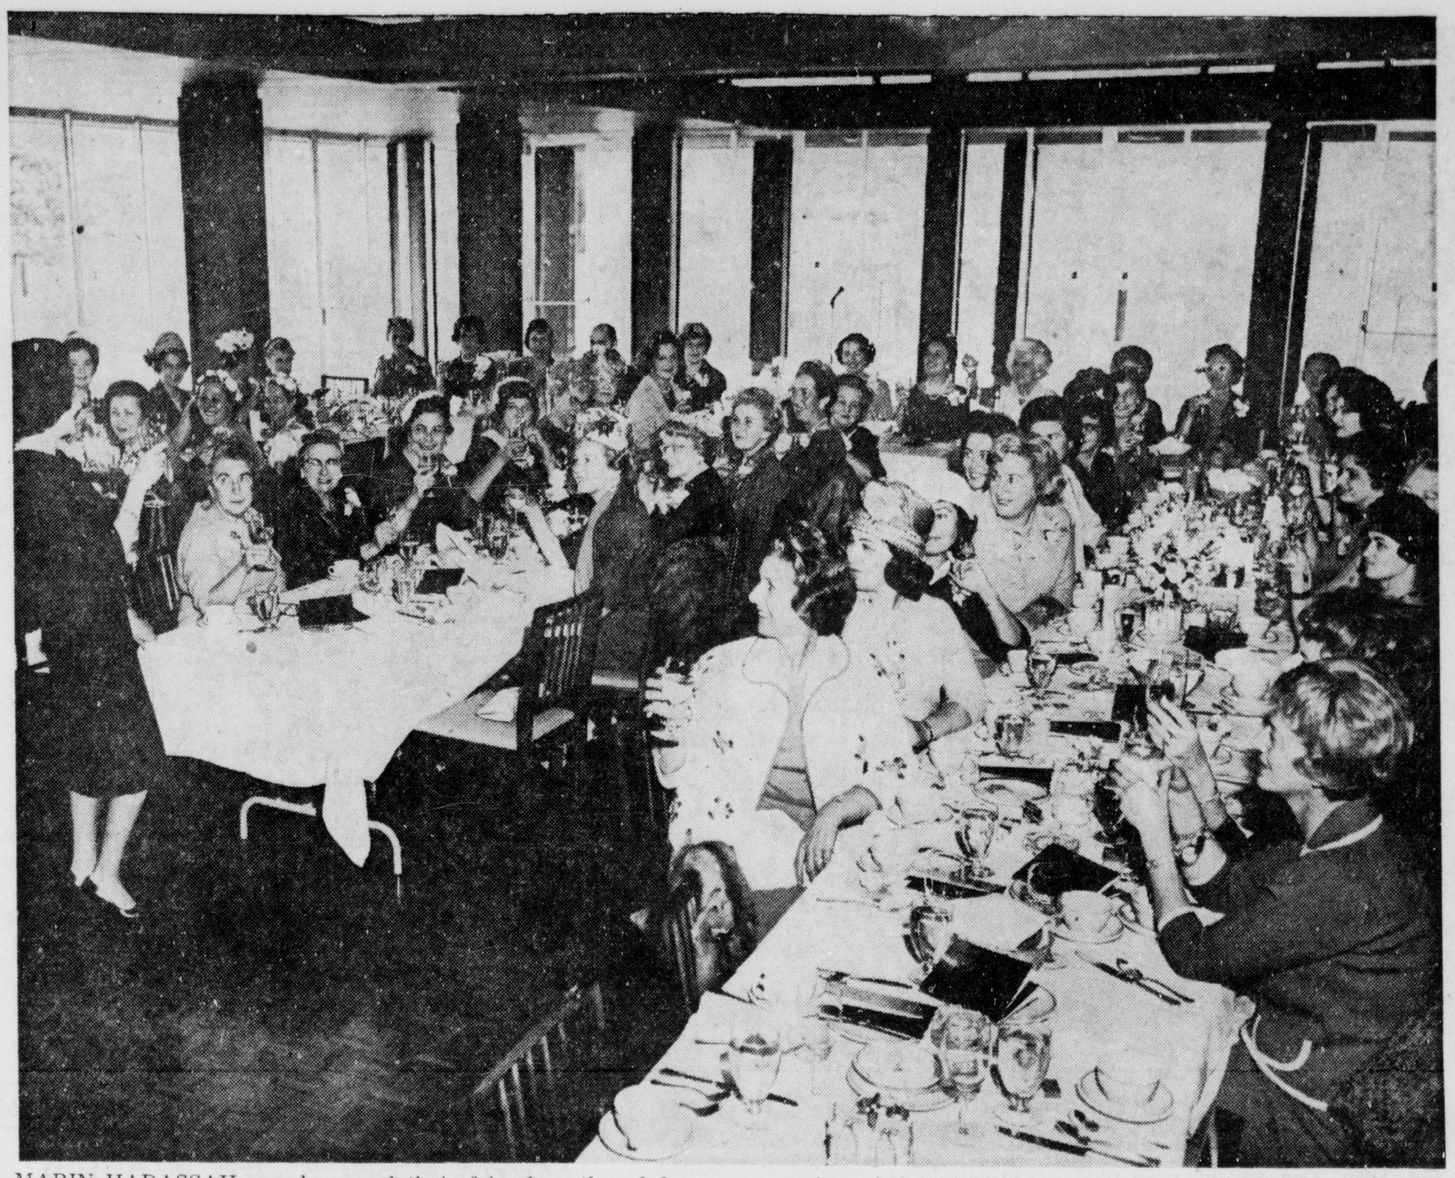
After Hitler came to power, Miss Szold, then 73, started a career in child rescue and rehabilitation. To date more than 100,000 Jewish youngsters have been saved, educated and made a part of the community.

SHE LIVED TO be 84, still fighting for the Zionist dream of a Jewish national home in Palestine and at the same time trying to establish friendly understanding between Arab and Jew.

"She was the greatest Jewish woman of our generation," says Mrs. Halprin, "and a greater one than this generation has produced or is likely to."

Mrs. Halprin, mother of two and grandmother of six, has been active in Hadassah for 30 years.

"We're not an organization, we're a way of life. It makes us reach a little higher. If you make an organization hold on to the high principles it had at its founding, you can not only reach 50 years, but go on and on." (AP)



MARIN HADASSAH members and their friends gathered for a luncheon marking the organization's 50 year celebration yesterday at Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club. Special guest speaker was the national treasurer, who has traveled throughout the world as a member of the organization. Jane Nickols of Novato presented a musical program. At far left, the Marin president, Mrs. Sidney Rudy leads a toast to mark the organization's golden anniversary. (Independent-Journal photos by Bob Hax)

Charity Event Has Promise Of Being Social Highlight

By HELEN THOMAS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Kennedy women and other Washington glamor girls are at work on a charity event which promises to be the capital's social highlight of the year.

It is a performance of a new Irving Berlin musical called "Mr. President," written by Russell Crouse and Howard Lindsay.

NO ONE KNOWS

No one knows yet the plot of the play, nor has it been cast. But it already has all the ingredients of a social success.

The "hod carrying" jobs are being handled by the President's sister-in-law, Ethel Kennedy, chairman of the Washington committee, and his sister, Jean Kennedy Smith, head of the New York committee.

Jacqueline Kennedy has promised her in-laws and friends that she will attend the musical if she is in town. The local observers of society also are betting this is one show Mr. President himself won't miss.

This is Mr. Berlin's first musical in 12 years—since "Call Me Madam." And subscribers who toss in as much as $100 for a seat also will get an invitation to a dance at the British Embassy, a shindig planned by the first family's close friends, Ambassador and Lady Ormsby Gore.

NAGGING DETAILS

The nagging details which go with any Washington event of such scope are being handled in part by Mrs. Donald M. Wilson, wife of the deputy director of the USIA. Susie Wilson is new frontier all the way. She is a lovely-looking blonde, a Vassar graduate, a former reporter, and traveled with Ethel and Robert Kennedy on their recent globe-circling trip.

Mrs. Wilson is executive chairman, and her three counterparts in New York also are socially prominent—Mrs. William F. Talbert, Mrs. Earl E. T. Smith and Mrs. Frederick Cushing.

All the women helping to show that there's no biz like show biz have entry to the White House. They include old friends of the Kennedys, such as Mrs. John Sherman Cooper, wife of the Kentucky senator, and Mrs. George Wheeler III, who gave a buffet supper for the President the night of his inauguration.

Also prominent on the list are cabinet wives, wives of newsmen who hobnob with the President, and other women in the Kennedy administration official family.

ANYBODY SEEN A MAYPOLE?

Are you an incurable collector of odd items? Do you haunt salvage shops and rummage sales bringing home items you may use someday? Have you an old Maypole among your possessions?

The girls have been asked to perform at the Reed Union School District's Arts Festival May 19. They have accepted, are learning a dance from Mickey McGowan, have their costumes and headdresses and are all set to go, with the exception of the Maypole. Mrs. Richard Sims has searched with no luck so far.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Mrs. Harron Entertains At Luncheon To Usher In Spring

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

To usher spring in officially Mrs. Tracy Harron entertained at a luncheon today at La Petite Auberge in San Rafael. Her guest list included Mesdames Thomas F. Smith, Alfred S. Lee, Thomas Moran, George Wells, Christopher Jenks, J. R. Bundesen, Edward B. Ward, Maynard Harms, P. S. Finnell, Albert F. Roller, Max Schulz, John Conroy, L. P. Schmidt, S. F. Pellas, William Chatham Jr., Richard Mayer, Lee Marriott, William P. Morgan, Walter Brown, P. J. Van Nostrand, George Delagnes, Howard Bernhard, Roy Powers, Rene A. Vayssie, Marcel La Place, James Patrick, Russell Chatham, L. H. Korndorff and Richard F. Bradley.

A FAREWELL LUNCHEON was given recently at Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club in honor of Mrs. John Mardakis of Larkspur. She and her two daughters, Paula, 10, and Christine, 7, are flying East April 14 to visit Mrs. Mardakis' uncle, Dennis Phillips, at his home on Long Island. Luncheon guests were Mesdames Jack Price, Richard Bauman, James Schurerd and Arthur L. Schwerdt.

TWO MARIN couples have returned from a leisurely yacht cruise to Mexico with stories of their adventures. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ainbinder of Greenbrae and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Dallman of Belvedere left Dec. 12 aboard the Dallmans' 65-foot yacht, the McCoy. They had some excellent surf fsihing and then made port at Acapulco to await the arrival of Stanley Backner, an executive from Pennsylvania who was to join them on the cruise.

Mr. Backner arrived with Robert Coleman, a Chicago businessman. They had met in Mexico City when the Chicago man, who is blind and led by his guide dog, was having difficulty at the airport making reservations and together they flew to the coast. When the Dallmans heard of the blind man they invited him to join them, with his guide dog, for a day of fishing from the yacht. All were delighted and the blind man was thrilled when he caught the first fish in his life —a 200-pound sailfish.

JANET AITKIN, daughter of Mrs. Ralph C. Curtis of Belvedere, is on a tour of Europe. Janet, an assistant district attorney in San Francisco, flew the polar route to Copenhagen and will visit England, Scotland, Ireland and Switzerland, studying the legal procedures in those countries and meeting the dignitaries of the courts. Janet, whose home is in San Francisco, visits her mother on the weekends and is active in sports. She is a member of the Belvedere Sailing Society, the Belvedere Ski Society and the San Francisco Yacht Club.

A TWENTY-FIFTH wedding anniversary party at Sabella's recently honored Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Madsen of Sebastopol. The party, a complete surprise to the Madsens, was arranged by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mario Ferrero, and their daughter, Miss Mary Madsen. Fourteen guests attended the dinner and the wedding celebrants were presented with silver gifts.

Disappointed were Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Carpenter of Mill Valley that they could not spend their second wedding anniversary in Hawaii. Their reservations on the Matson Navigation Co.'s Lurline, which was to have sailed Sunday, were cancelled because of the maritime strike. They had invited 50 people to a bon voyage party on the Lurline and this affair was cancelled, of course. The Carpenters were married at the Swedenborgian Church in San Francisco. Mrs. Carpenter was the former Phyllis Rankin. The Carpenters have a baby son, Robert, who was to have remained home with a nurse.

14th District P-TA Council To Hold Annual Report Meet

The annual report meeting, election and installation of officers of the 14th District of the P-TA will be held at the Novato Community Club house tomorrow, with the North Marin Council as host.

Mrs. Roy Kanoff of Novato, council president, has announced registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Malcolm Finley, San Rafael, president of the 14th District, which includes Marin and Sonoma counties, will open the meeting at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Robin Galloway, Kentfield, president; Mrs. William Campbell, San Rafael, vice president; Mrs. Orvale Witt, Santa Rosa, director of organization; Mrs. F. E. Duey, Santa Rosa, director of parent and family life; and Mrs. E. A. Cambouris, Corte Madera, director of public welfare.

"Building for Tomorrow on Today's Evaluation" is the theme for the meeting, which will review P-TA activities during the past year, will include a panel by council presidents of the district. Out-of-council P-TA units will also make a report of their achievements.

The six Novato P-TA units who are in charge of the luncheon are Marion, West Novato, Lu Sutton, Olive, Rancho and Hill Intermediate.

Mrs. Kanoff will be hostess for the luncheon at 1 p.m.

Art Of Table Setting Is Used To Illustrate Various Themes

The fine art of table setting, with 24 variations done by Marin women, will be displayed March 28 on tables at the Frances Young Gallery, the Northgate and Decorations Guild buildings at the Art and Garden Center, Ross.

Tea will be served to guests viewing the "Variety in Table Decor" show from 1 to 4 p.m.

All tables will be named to feature settings appropriate to various occasions. Some of the provocative titles are "Calories Don't Count," "First Anniversary," "Fish Course," "Say It With Music," "Stew for Two," "Frankly Phoney," "So Shell You Eat," "A Game Table," "Cioppino," "Mrs. Brown Comes to Tea," "Nantucket Noontime," and "La Fiesta de la Pinata."

Committee chairmen assisting Mrs. Halley will be Mrs. Walter M. Baird, reservations; Mesdames Robert Walker, William McCammon, hostesses; Mesdames Ray Hoffman, William Kapranos, tea; Mesdames Dion Ramsey-Raisan, Winston Jones, decorations; Mrs. Joseph Q. Riznik, publicity.

Mrs. Jones will "do" the table to be displayed in the Decorations Guild building and Mrs. Roland Chapman will arrange the setting in the Antique Shop.

Other Northgate members exhibiting will be Mesdames Frederick Allen, Robert E. Byard, James E. Barnes, Levant Brown, J. Boatner Chamberlain, John Dowling, Henry Drath, George Goheen, William Grace, William E. Haney, Ernest Kirschner, Norman B. Livermore, Newton Longfellow, Edward Mahoney Jr., David Plant, Carl Priest, Lloyd R. Richards, Frederick Scatena Jr., George Schirmer, Henry E. Skinner, Frank C. Stratford and Allen Zeiss.

EASTER BREAKFAST is the theme of a table arranged by Mrs. Curtis S. Knowles, coordinator of the Northgate Group's "Variety in Table Decor." Fresh flowers, an Easter bonnet, colored eggs, with Kutani ware make up the colorful display. Discussing the tea to follow the showings are "executives" of the money-raising occasion. From left are Mrs. Allen Zeiss, who will decorate the tea table in the Caroline S. Livermore room; Mrs. LeRoy Page, Northgate Group president; Mrs. Ray Hoffman, a tea chairman; and Mrs. Knowles. Brainwashing Can Be Stopped By Instruction In Patriotism

Can we keep our children from being brainwashed? Can schools give kids lifelong resistance to the sort of pressure exerted by Chinese Communists on American prisoners of war in Korea? This is a mightly important question.

Remember the prisoners in Korea? A shocking percentage of them gave in and cooperated with the communists. The Chinese skillfully destroyed their sanity. They drove them into "schizophrenia." They did it by recovering their leaders, then tearing apart their friendships and their loyalties. One simple trick was to have them inform on each other. Soon all sense of group support and personal worth were gone. The men weren't tortured physically; they were ruined emotionally. Afterward they cooperated with their Chinese masters gladly.

I think three things could keep this from happening again. First, an increased program of patriotic instruction in every school. It should start in kindergarten. Basic loyalties come early in life. A strongly emotional, do-or-die love of the U.S.A. is essential.

Second, a revision of our ideas about boys' gangs and clubs. Our boys are overly organized. They aren't loyal to each other but to their adult leaders. They don't develop their own capacities. They tattle. They take orders but can't give them. The men in Korea showed the effects devastatingly.

Third, during their military training, recruits should be taught how brainwashing is done and given tricks to protect themselves. They should be taught all about communism so that they understand and hate it. Namby-pamby instruction only dignifies the enemy.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Why should patriotism be taught early?" F.B.

(A) Because permanent standards and attitudes are acquired early in life. Character traits, for example, usually are formed by the age of 7 or 8. If patriotism is learned later, it may not be durable.

Teaching Career Is Helpful To P-TA Council President

Mrs. Robert F. Murphy, new president of the Mill Valley Parent - Teachers Association Council, is suited by training and interests to head this type of organization.

A graduate of Mississippi State College for Women, Mrs. Murphy has done graduate work at the University of Rhode Island. Until the day before she, her husband and three children left Warwick, R.I., to come to Mill Valley two and a half years ago, she was headmistress of the middle school of Rocky Hills Country Day School. And before that she taught social studies and dramatics in the high school at Westly, R.I.

MRS. ROBERT MURPHY

HAS SERVED

Mrs. Murphy, as vice president, had been serving the council as president since Mrs. John Binckly resigned to work as precinct chairman for the forthcoming school tax election. She was officially chosen president in the election at the March meeting of the council.

For two years Mrs. Murphy has been a member of the council, which is the coordinating body for the nine Mill Valley P-TA units in the Mill Valley School District. It includes all presidents and heads of standing committees of these units.

"Right now we are working hard on the school tax increase proposal," said Mrs. Murphy. "In April we are planning to invite school teachers from foreign countries who are studying at San Francisco State College to visit our schools during Public Schools Week. And in May we shall be having our workshops for officers and chairmen."

The new council president is also first vice president of the Alto P-TA and is a member of the Mill Valley Tennis Club, the Outdoor Art Club and Episcopal Churchwomen of the Church of Our Saviour. She also was appointed by the trustees of the Mill Valley School District to serve on the community relations council of the City of Mill Valley.

ENJOYS CHURCH WORK

"I spend most of my time outside my home in church work," she said, "for my family and church are what I enjoy most. We travel a lot and have visited most of the United States and Canada."

Murphy selected Mill Valley as the ideal community to bring his family to when he was transferred to the West Coast from Rhode Island. He is now director of field services for the California Division of the American Cancer Society with offices in San Francisco.

Other Mill Valley P-TA Council officers chosen to serve with Mrs. Murphy are Mesdames William Clark, vice president; William Keeler, recording secretary; Doris Thurston, corresponding secretary; and Albert Moore, treasurer.

Conservation Talk Planned In Mill Valley

Conservation Week will be honored at tomorrow's guest day meeting of the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley.

Guest speaker will be University of California professor Daniel B. Luten, Ph. D., a lecturer in the geography department who teaches courses on energy resources and natural resources conservation. Dr. Luten's primary interests are the problems raised by the population-resources dilemma, too many people on too little land.

He is chairman of the regional parks association and during 1948-50 served as technical adviser to the natural resources section of the civil administration of occupied Japan.

Dr. Luten holds a bachelors degree from Dartmouth College and doctorate degree from the University of California, both in chemistry. He is a member the Sierra Club and other conservation societies.

Y-Wives Club To Tour I-J

The YWCA Wives Club of Central Marin will meet at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Alfred Wilmot, 395 Hickory Lane, Terra Linda, and proceed to San Rafael for a tour of the Independent-Journal plant.

Mrs. Wilmot has announced that coffee will be served prior to the tour, and that child care will be provided at her home.

Mrs. Wilmot and Mrs. Dennis Carey have announced that the club membership is open to anyone interested in joining the tour and other activities scheduled by the club.

VOLUNTEERS ARE WELCOMED

The Ross home of Mrs. Norman B. Livermore provided the setting yesterday for the traditional Marin Music Chest "Kick-off Tea" when subscription drive volunteers received supplies for the month long campaign. From left, Mrs. Myron Slater, who will have the San Anselmo Seminary district, and Mrs. James Blumberg, Sleepy Hollow chairman, are given their drive supplies by Mrs. Alex Gorman, county chairman, and Mrs. Ragnar Thaning. The drive supports the summer concert series of the Music Chest at Forest Meadows in San Rafael. (Independent-Journal photo)

Today is Wednesday, March 21, the 80th day of the year with 285 to follow in 1962.

The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

Tam Students Heading For Europe

Christine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Saxton of 3 Lower Crescent Avenue, Sausalito, will live in Sweden.

Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Putney of 123 Eldridge Avenue, Mill Valley, hopes to spend his summer vacation in Turkey, but has not yet received assignment from Experiment officials.

Allen said Experiment in International Living groups do not normally go to Turkey, but he had hoped the visit could be arranged for him.

An exchange student from Turkey, Ahmet Gucuyener, spent last school year in the Putney home. "I got to know him quite well and hoped to be able to visit his home in Turkey," Allen said.

Allen and Christine were each awarded $600 grants from the Mill Valley chapter of the Experiment in International Living last November. Both students estimate they will have to add about $500 of their own to pay for the trip.

The Experiment in International Living program calls for the student to live with a foreign family for one month. For another month the student will be allowed to travel in the country. The student will also live in a large city for two weeks.

Evangelist Opens New Rest Home In Mill Valley

A newly built rest home, licensed for 40 guests, has been opened at 297 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley, by a San Francisco evangelist and his wife.

Rev. H. F. Bretschneider, clergyman for 25 years for the Assemblies of God Church, announced today that they had obtained a license from the state and opened the home last week.

"It is for ambulatory, well patients. It is not a nursing home," he stressed. The couple plan to commute daily to Mill Valley to spend as much time as possible supervising operations.

Mrs. Bretschneider's mother, Mrs. Arthur Wienerth, will serve as housemother and live at the home.

The house, an L-shaped structure on a 10-000-square foot lot, has a penthouse and separate living room upstairs. There also is a pullman kitchen where guests may make snacks, he said.

The building is surrounded by a patio, to which bedrooms have access by sliding glass doors. There is a private bath between each two bedrooms.

The evangelist said he designed and supervised the building in cooperation with Wagstaff and McDonald of San Rafael. Two old structures were razed to make room for the home. The site was picked after nearly three years of searching, he said.

Redwood and bricks from the older structures were used in the home which he began building last October. The lot was purchased through real estate dealer Paul Crowley of Mill Valley.

Before coming to the Bay Area in 1959, the evangelist and his wife operated a 30-person rest home in Ventura County. He has served as an evangelist in every state in the union and throughout Canada and Europe.

His wife is the daughter of an evangelist for the same church in Germany. He was drafted into the Nazi army of Adolf Hitler in World War II and was killed in action in France in 1944.

Novato Land Use Meeting Monday

The land use portion of the Novato master plan will be presented to the public at 8 p.m. Monday in the community building by the Novato Planning Commission.

The commission Tuesday night went over the written text of the North Marin master plan and updated the copy to accompany maps of land uses.

Excursion For Rail Fans Slated April 15

An excursion for railroad fans will be held April 15 from Fort Bragg to Willits on the California Western Railroad, announced Robert R. Rankin of Novato, secretary-treasurer of the Redwood Empire Division, National Model Railroaders Assn.

The day-long trip will include a tour of railroad yards and shops at Willits.

Lure Of The Movies

'CHERRY BLOSSOMS IN JULY'

Japanese Theme Is Planned For '62 Art, Garden Fair

"Cherry Blossoms in July" will be the theme of the 1962 Marin Art and Garden Fair to be held in Ross July 3-7.

The Japanese theme and the staff for the 17th annual show were announced today by James S. Goodale of San Rafael, chairman of the fair executive committee of the Marin Art and Garden Center.

Marcelle B. McCoy of Sleepy Hollow, manager of five previous Art and Garden fairs will again direct the production. Henry H. Cole, San Rafael landscape architect will design this year's show, his fifth turn at the appointment.

Cole said today his transformation of the 10 acres of the Art and Garden Center grounds for the fair will reflect the serene beauty of Japan and interpret in design the influence of Japanese culture and landscaping in the Bay Area.

A glimpse of Japanese gardens, framed by a redwood arbor and panelled towers will form the gateway to the show, Cole said. Soft earthy greens accented by touches of lacquer red will form the color accents. Painted panels placed around the grounds of the Marin county temporary "fairgrounds" will add to the Japanese theme.

The Center's celebrated magnolia grandiflora will be offset by a huge, colorful torii, a traditional Japanese gateway.

The fair will feature a new hall of flowers designed to simulate a teahouse. The floral pavilion will be closely related in location and design to the model garden exhibits.

The commercial area located in a beautiful section of the grounds under pines, elms and oak trees, has been redesigned this year, Mrs. McCoy said. New booths and a new layout will be offered to exhibitors.

Plans are completed and work has started for the summer event. The fair office is open daily from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Other members of the fair staff for 1962 include: Iris D. Hale, secretary; Charlotte Barnes Riznik, public relations director; George Donaldson, Marin county deputy auditor; Vincent Davison, grounds superintendent.

Serving with Goodale on the fair executive committee will be the following Art and Garden Center board members: Herman E. Hein, Mill Valley landscape architect; Richard F. Tyler, San Rafael accountant, John C. Gilman of Ross, Pacific Telephone Company executive, and Mrs. Frank C. Stratford of Ross.

Hub City Planners Deny Chiropractor Permit

A tie vote of 3-to-3 by the San Anselmo Planning Commission on Monday night denied a use permit to Albert B. Carter of 8 Meadow Way, Fairfax, to operate a chiropractor's office in San Anselmo.

A request by William Pollard for a rezoning from duplex residential to commercial of a parcel at 200 Redhill Avenue was held over indefinitely at the request of the applicant.

The commission tabled until April 16 a request for approval of a tentative map of Virginia Heights, subdivision near Angela Avenue and Oak Springs Drive. The application was made by developer Ed Halperin.

College To Do 'Matchmaker'

College of Marin Players have scheduled "The Matchmaker," a four-act farce by Thornton Wilder, as their spring production, director Irene Clark has announced.

The play will be presented April 5, 6 and 7, in the College Little Theater.

"The Matchmaker" centers around a woman set on making matches between her friends and acquaintances. Climax is reached when the audience discovers that the woman is pursuing an eligible bachelor for herself instead of for the likely young ladies she wishes him to meet.

Cast includes parts for seven women and nine men.

Talk On Discipline Slated At Center

Lt. Col. William Hausman, assistant chief of psychiatry at Letterman General Hospital, will discuss "Discipline" tomorrow at 8 p.m. at a meeting of parents and teachers in the Marin Jewish Community Center, 1618 Mission Avenue, San Rafael.

Colonel Hausman, a resident of Lucas Valley and a member of the center, will speak to parents of children who attend the center's nursery school.

Y-Indian Guides Meeting Tonight

The Y-Indian Guides Get-Acquainted Council will meet today at 7:30 p.m. in San Rafael High School. Dwight Merritt of Marinwood, chief of Marin Cougar Nation, said all fathers and sons are welcome.

Y-Indian Guides, sponsored by the Young Men's Christian Assn., encourages activities for fathers and their 5 to 7-year old sons.

'Knowledge Explosion' Creating Demand On Schools

I-J Special Report

BLOOMFIELD HILLS, Mich. —The "knowledge explosion" taking place in all areas of American society creates a new demand for excellence in our educational systems, Lynn A. Townsend, president of Chrysler Corp. asserts.

Pointing to the nation's great technological advances which are constantly opening up whole fields for young men and women, Townsend said "change is in the very air we breathe and we, as a people, are compelled to say today that almost anything is possible."

Speaking to the Bloomfield Hills Parent-Teacher Assn. Townsend described the kind of students our schools should produce to keep our nation strong and free.

"First," Townsend said, "students should be equipped to comprehend and master new knowledge and techniques quickly and thoroughly.

"This can best be accomplished by learning the arts of communication, by learning to read and understand subject matter, to write clearly and concisely and to speak coherently.

"Hand in hand with this," Townsend continued, "students must learn basic rules of mathematics and how to apply them as well as develop a thorough understanding of basic scientific method.

"A second major requirement for today's student is to preserve the integrity of his own individual personality and at the same time to work effectively with a group."

The third essential requirement is for each student to have the "spiritual and moral strength to maintain a true course in the rough seas of this century."

"Education should supplement home and church in helping the individual live a full and productive life by developing in the student sound moral convictions, lofty ideals, personal pride and confidence," he said.

Emphasizing the changing society of America today, Townsend pointed out that revolutionary changes in manufacturing have raised our nation's standard of living to new heights.

"More goods are available to more people, and more and more jobs have been created for more people. Education's job is to provide a student with tools in order to shape for himself a career, or a whole series of careers, in a rapidly changing world."

Referring to the recent orbital space flight of Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. Townsend said that just a few years ago the headline, "Glenn Orbits," would not have been easily understood by the majority of the American public.

"Yet today we really can't read a newspaper intelligently without having such words as orbit, inertial guidance and telemetry as part of our vocabulary."

Townsend also said Colonel Glenn's successful flight demonstrated as nothing else could have done that "Ours is an open society with enough confidence in its strength to let the world see its failures as well as its successes."

"When we strengthen our educational system we strengthen the very heart of our country, thus giving us all opportunity to change and grow with the space age in which we live," Townsend concluded.

In Charge Of Bands

Timothy J. Fitzharris, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fitzharris, 1235 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, will be in charge of bands at Picnic Day of University of California at Davis, on April 7. About 25,000 persons are expected to attend the picnic, an annual event since 1909.

Red China's 'Leap Forward Takes Great Slide Back'

I-J Special Report

STANFORD UNIVERSITY—During the past two years, Communist China's national income has declined at least 10 per cent, creating the gravest economic crisis there since the end of the Korean War, according to researchers at the Hoover Institution of Stanford University.

"Economically, the Chinese Communists have never been so vulnerable as they are now," declared research associate Y. L. Wu, currently on leave as professor of international business at University of San Francisco. Author of "An Economic Survey of Communist China" and "Economic Warfare," Professor Wu has studied the Chinese Communist economy since 1951.

The Chinese Communists' widely publicized "great leap forward" of 1958-59 has been followed by a "big slide backward" in 1960 and 1961, Wu said.

In 1960, he estimated, mainland China's gross domestic production of goods and services was less than one sixth the U.S. total. Since Communist China has nearly four times the total U.S. population, output per person was less than 1/24 the average for this country.

Food shortages, while important, are only part of the economic problem now plaguing the Communists, he said. Shortages in chemical fertilizers, transportation facilities, machinery production and generating equipment have added to their woes.

"Balance of payment difficulties have further aggravated the problem and have made mainland China susceptible to external economic pressure," Wu declares. "The Chinese Communists have been dependent on Russia for much. But with the present split between the two it's doubtful the Soviets will give China all the help it wants.

"The food shortage on the mainland is a direct result of decreased production of cereals and potatoes. The failure of the so-called great leap forward was, however, by no means entirely due to crop failures caused by unfavorable weather conditions.

"Faulty planning—partly the result of using false statistics—the excessively high goals set in the plans, technological deficiencies of the small industry movement, lack of incentives in the communes, the abuse of labor mobility of the regimented farmers and workers and other management errors all contributed to the decline," Wu said.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Shed No Tears For Stephen —It Was His Hand To Play

In the spring of every year I place a few flowers on the grave of Stingy Stephen. The crocus and the primrose were beginning to bloom a few years ago when Stephen met his fate. This was the hand that brought it on.

Opening lead — ♡ 5

Stephen played low from the dummy on the opening heart lead. East won with the king, and Stephen naturally played low to save his precious queen.

East returned a heart to the queen. Stephen cashed the ace of clubs and looked around for a way to get to dummy for the rest of the clubs.

TRIES DIAMOND: South tried the diamonds first, leading low to dummy's queen. East won with the king of diamonds and returned the jack.

South won with the ace of diamonds and tried a spade to dummy's queen. East won with the king, cashed two good diamonds and got out with the ten of spades.

West overtook with the jack of spades, so South still had to lose two more spade tricks. Down three.

Stingy Stephen might still be with us, if he hadn't chosen this minute to try to borrow a dime from his partner to make a phone call. It was a charming funeral.

Of course you see where Stephen made his first mistake. He should have dropped the queen of hearts at the first trick. If East returned a heart, dummy would win two tricks, permitting declarer to discard the ace of clubs. If East returned anything else, dummy's ace of hearts would be a sure entry to the clubs.

DAILY QUESTION: Partner opens with one diamond, and the next player passes. You hold:

♠ J 9 8 3
♥ J 8 7 5 2
♦ 6 3
♣ 7 6

What do you say?

Answer: Pass. Even if you could hit a fit by responding in a major suit, you would surely get too high. A pass is the best way to show a hopelessly weak hand.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

"The Pride of Larkspur"
JUST COMPLETED—
$36,950

Have you been searching on the "special side" . . . without success? See this extravagantly constructed and designed new residence in the gleam of the Larkspur sun. It has the look of a champion! 3 bedrooms of the most ample proportions, plus a Family Room of distinction . . . plus a complete all G.E. kitchen. Your first view of the property catches a lavish lava stone fireplace wall, and the texture scene is carried out in exposed aggregate patios and walks. And the view of Mt. Tamalpais and the bay! Something to imbibe . . . prepare yourself for a very private setting, graced by many mature trees, yet with a maximum sun exposure. No dank moss on the trees here! Walk 4 blocks to the Greyhound, jaunt to Redwood Hi on foot, and Marin Catholic, just a short spin. Dial 461-5221 and let us show you this exceptional property at your earliest convenience.

121—Used Cars For Sale

SPECIAL
'61 Buick Specials
Skylark Coupe $2695
Here's probably the rarest car on the used car market today. We've just taken this popular little compace coupe in trade on a new Buick. It's got just over 8,000 original miles and you can't tell it from the new ones on our floor. This car his the market last spring and soon became the best seller we've ever had. All the trade magazines rate it the best buy on the market. This coupe is a close to new as you can get it. Not a mark of year or abuse anywhere. Power steering, Dynaflow transmission, radio, heater, w-w tires and all the Buick extras. This car costs around $3,700 new. A real buy.

4-Dr. Sedan $2395
This one is an all-white sedan that we just took in trade on a new '62 Buick LeSabre. Original owner has put just over 8,000 miles on this little compact that has the small V8 engine that burns regular gas and will average close to 23 miles per gallon on the highway. Dynaflow, radio, heater and other Buick features. Not a scratch on this car. Clean as a whistle and without a scratch anywhere.

EASY DRY CLEANING—COIN OPERATED

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Marinites Will Get Continued Soft Water Service From Plant

Customers of U. S. Soft Water Service which has been operated by Tom Mirabito of San Rafael will be able to get continued service through Servisoft of Marin, 4172 Redwood Highway.

Richard W. Williams of Servisoft has taken over all regeneration equipment, chemicals and supplies from Mirabito and moved them to his own plant across from Terra Linda. He now carries two parallel lines —the red resin used by Mirabito and his own Jupiter resin, both products of Dow Chemical Co.

He also carries the Bruner line of home-owned and commercial water softeners and has inaugurated a "salt route" to service home-owned and commercial softeners.

THE NUMBER of guaranteed-for-life health insurance policies and plans available in or near the retirement age is increasing at a rapid rate, the Health Insurance Institute has reported.

A book published by the institute last July listed 126 such policies and plans provided by 66 different companies. A new edition shows 81 companies were issuing 157 different policies and plans on January 1. Even now, additions are coming so rapidly the new book may soon be outdated.

We notice that quite a few of the insurance companies listed either have their own agencies in Marin County or brokers representing them.

ABARDEAN PLASTICS, Inc., now at 936 C Street, San Rafael, is expected to move to new quarters at 36 Front Street soon. More space will be available, both for ofifce and warehousing . . . Charles Martin, 60 Rancho Drive, Mill Valley, has taken over the operation of the service station adjoining Hil Probert's Toyopet agency at 250 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur. It will be known as Chuck's Wilshire Station.

WE NOTICE that Si Furman's Paradise Park Marina, Inc. is now selling capital stock in its small boat harbor development on the eastern shore of the Tiburon peninsula. The project will cover 20 acres, include a clubhouse, 215 berths, bar and restaurant. Furman, who heads the corporation, is an East Bay restaurant man.

MARIN COUNTY was represented at the National Society of Savings and Loan Controllers conference in Philadelphia last week by Mrs. Claudia Goldthwaite, assistant vice president and assistant secretary of Ross Valley Savings and Loan and Mrs. Muriel Brown, assistant secretary-controller of Northwestern Savings and Loan.

ENTRIES officially closed today on a field of 46 new American passenger cars to compete for mileage honors in the Mobil Economy Run from Los Angeles to Detroit, March 31 to April 5.

Competing are 24 compacts and 22 standard-size cars in eight classes. General Motors has 20 ranging from a stick-shift Corvair to a luxury Oldsmobile 98. Ford and Chrysler have 11 each, from Falcons and Valiants to Continental and Imperial. American Motors will have two Rambler American 400s and an Ambassador. Studebaker has entered a Lark VI.

First evidence that Stone Agers existed was found at Chelles, France, in 1847. Since then, the so-called Chellean Man's tools have been collected over much of Africa, Asia and southwestern Europe.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Expense Accounts Must Be Reported

By PETER J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

Employees reimbursed expenses are reported on your California and federal return the same way.

P. J. Wikel

An employee who is not required to account to his employer (or even though required, does not account) must report on his return the total amounts of expenses for travel, transportation, entertainment and other purposes which he incurs under a reimbursement or other arrangement with his employer. Any allowance to the employee in excess of his expenses must be included in the employee's income.

An employee who is required to account to his employer for his expenses and does so account, will not ordinarily be called upon to substantiate expense account information unless:

1. His expenses exceed the total of the amounts charged to his employer and he claims a deduction on his return for such excess; or,

2. He is related to his employer or is employed by a company in which he or his family owns more than 50 per cent of the stock; or

3. It is determined that the procedures used by the employer in accounting for these expenses are not adequate.

The rules for employees' expenses are ever more complicated and every employee's expense deduction is due for a more thorough going over than ever before. If you have expenses for travel, entertainment, etc., then you should keep accurate records to back up every item you deduct on your tax return.

The Internal Revenue Service provides form 2106 for reporting these.

Marin Municipal Water District

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Call For Bids — 874 Fourth Street Property

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Directors of Marin Municipal Water District will receive SEALED OR ORAL BIDS for the purchase from the District of that certain real property including all land standing in the name of Marin Municipal Water District, all buildings and improvements thereon situate at 874 Fourth Street in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, known as Marin County Assessor's Parcel No. 11-224-17 for year 1961 and described as follows:

COMMENCING on the Northerly line of Fourth Street, distant thereon 100 feet Easterly from the Easterly line of Lootens Place, and running thence at right angles Northerly 220.68 feet, more or less to the Southerly line of Fifth Street; thence Easterly along said line of Fifth Street, to a point measured 75 feet at right angles Easterly from the said last mentioned line, running thence Southerly at right angles to Fourth Street 220.86 feet, more or less, to said Northerly line of Fourth Street, thence Westerly along said Northerly line of Fourth Street, 75 feet to the point of beginning.

Said bids will be received and said property will be sold upon and subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. SEALED OR ORAL BIDS will be received at the hour of one-thirty o'clock P.M. in the Board Room of the Board of Directors of Marin Municipal Water District, 874 Fourth Street, San Rafael, California on Wednesday, the 11th day of April, 1962.

2. At the time and place of receipt of said bids as above stated, said property will be offered at public auction and further or additional bids will be received. The property will then be sold to the highest and best bidder based on the highest net bid made and not the highest gross bid; provided, however, that the Board of Directors reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

3. Commissions to be paid, if any, must be paid by the bidder in addition to the sum bid.

4. Possession will be delivered on or before May 31, 1962. It is anticipated that possession will be given at an earlier date and it may be taken by the buyer at such time as the District may vacate the building and upon its removal to its new quarters.

Dated at San Rafael, California, March 14, 1962.

WHAT'S POPPIN

Summer Play Clothes On Way

By JANET POPPIN

Brisk March winds have teased the public with a sneak preview of summer play clothes and co-ordinates.

Crisp, cool cottons of light pastels or bright sunny colors are being shown in solids, flowers, and designs for summer wear. Some mix-and-match play clothes include bathing suits, bermudas, capris, crop tops, skirts, and even evening dresses, while others may include only interchangeable skirts, blouses and shorts.

Bright white, sleeveless, sack type blouses with a row of ruffles at the bottom cover up dainty ruffly matching panties

The variation of cloth shoes is wide. Ranging from tennis shoes to evening slippers, they may be mixed and matched with any kind of summer clothing. Tennis shoes of many fabrics, styles and shades such as white, black, blue, pink, grey, beige, green, yellow, orange, lavender, red and olive green canvas, corduroy or even the very latest soft kid leather.

SELECTING HUSBAND'S SUIT

Tree Succumbs Despite Money

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP)—Money in the bank and special care failed to save a 150-year-old elm tree.

The tree became the victim of Dutch elm disease despite the fact the late Jennie M. Arms Sheldon had set up a trust fund for its preservation.

Penney's Known For Brand Names

If a person is known by the company he keeps, then a business is known by its brand names.

The subject of brand names is particularly significant to Penney's during 1962 as it observes the 60th anniversary of the founding of the company's first store, according to Roger Nabers, store manager at the Corte Madera Center. The development and growth of Penney brands, he declared, has paralleled the company's growth generally.

Penney's launched development of its own brands in 1918, some 16 years after the first store was opened in Kemmerer, Wyo., on April 14, 1902, Nabers pointed out.

Pay-Day work clothes, Penney's first brand, soon became a household word — as have other brands introduced since. Following Pay-Day have come such other well known brands as Gaymode women's hose, Towncraft men's furnishings and accessories, Townclad men's suits, and Rondo piece goods.

Clue to the success of Penney's brand merchandise is that it is manufactured according to the company's own rigid specifications, Nabers said.

Introduction of a new brand is only the beginning of Penney's responsibility, for constant checking of the product must be conducted to assure that specifications are being met. And that's the job of Penney's Testing and Research Laboratory, which spearheads the company's ever expanding quality control program.

The laboratory, established more than 35 years ago, is considered one of the largest and best-equipped facilities in the country operated by a retail organization for consumer end-use testing of textiles. It conducts more than 50,000 separate tests each year to insure that quality standards are being maintained or improved and that the company's advertising claims are justified.

The Penney laboratory, Nabers continued, tests from the consumer's viewpoint. In other words, much of the testing is "Consumer's testing in a consumer's laboratory," conducted to make sure that the customer gets full value for his dollar.

Out of the constant efforts of the testing and research laboratory and the company's 250 buyers to develop and make available the best merchandise at lowest possible prices have come numerous innovations.

Nabers noted that one example of this may be found in the wide use of Pima cotton, so named after Pima County, Arizona, where it originates.

Always regarded as the finest form of cotton, Pima was not widely used until Peneny's introduced its all-Pima Towncraft dress shirts at popular prices.

Since then, Penney's has expanded its use of Pima cotton to underwear, hose and other items. As a matter of fact, Penney's now ranks as the largest single user of Pima in the retail field.

Center Is Community Tax Asset

Corte Madera Shopping Center is a very real asset to the town of Corte Madera and Marin County. The sales tax collected at the Corte Madera Center pays a greater part of the tax revenue than the tax paid on real estate.

Edward P. Ward, president of the Marin County Real Estate Board, in addressing some 200 brokers and salesmen at a meeting in February said, "If Marinites would try local merchants before taking their trade to other areas, city and county sales tax revenue would increase to take the pressure off real property taxes."

Harry Kramer, Center president, said, "Compare our prices, services and conveniences to other areas and you will want to buy in Marin, and of course, specifically, in Corte Madera Center."

Robert Batty, Montgomery Ward manager, in speaking of a recent Ward fashion show at a Marin country club, said, "Women are amazed at the quality and style offered."

Lewis Ripperger of Woolworth's in evaluating his patrons said, "Marin shops price but also they will pay for quality and we must stock accordingly."

B. A. Sill, Crocker-Anglo Bank manager says, "Shopping in Marin is a double bargain. The savings in time and transportation plus the huge contribution to the tax rolls makes shopping here, when possible, just good common sense."

ERIC M. MATHIAS

Watchmaker Knows His Trade

Mathias learned his trade in his grandfather's shop in Zurich, Switzerland, and worked with his father in Berlin. He became a journeyman in this exacting trade at 14.

Mathias opened his own shop in London and then transferred his operations to San Francisco in 1949. His wife, Else, works with him at Corte Madera and they have a daughter, Fleur, at College of Marin and a son, Harold, at Redwood High School.

The Mathias live in Corte Madera and Eric is a member of the Corte Madera Lions Club. Son Harold, a high school junior, is also a professional photographer and took the pictures, as an Independent-Journal assignment, that appear here.
